Dan has 24 years of coaching experience in softball and baseball with the last 12 years coaching select fastpitch teams. Those teams have competed at a very high level locally and nationally. He prides himself at getting the most out of a player's ability. He does this by establishing a good rapport with all his players. The players learn to trust his decision making and have come to know he has the team's and the individual's best interest at heart. Dan has coached numerous players that have gone on to have successful collegiate careers. He also has been involved in instructional camps and private instruction for many years.
