

HUNTER BARNS MEMORIAL TRAP SHOOT

A fun day of trap shooting to benefit the Hunter Barns Memorial.

- 4 rounds of trap (25 birds per round) for $30
- Prize drawings (need not be present to win)
- Saturday, August 17
- Registration starts at 8:00 a.m.
- Shoot starts at 9:00 a.m.
- Lunch starts at 11:00 a.m.
- Pork burgers, hot dogs, chips, and bottled water (free will donation)

Hosted at Effingham County Sportsman's Club, 14295 Sportsman's Drive.
www.effinghamssportsmansclub.com

T-Shirts will be available for sale.
Details coming soon.

Register at Effingham County Sportsman's Club or Accuracy Firearms.

You may also text or call (618) 367-0954 or e-mail
hunterbarnsmemorialfoundation@gmail.com
You may also register the day of the event.

Shooters of all ages welcome. Must supply own firearm, ammunition, and personal protection gear.

All proceeds benefit the Hunter Barns Memorial.

Who was Hunter Barns? Hunter grew up in Altamont, Illinois and graduated from Altamont Community High School in 2016. While attending high school he participated in soccer, cross country, and track and field.

Hunter was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed hunting, fishing, and hiking. He had a true love for nature.

Hunter enjoyed spending time with his friends, family, and girlfriend Bailie. He had a wide variety of friends and was known for his ability to lift people up when they were down.

Hunter pursued his dreams of serving his country by enlisting in the United States Army-National Guard on August 11, 2015. He attended monthly duty and excelled in his physical training drills. In addition, he was promoted to the E2 rank. He was to report for his Basic and AIT training on June 15, 2016. Prior to his passing, he was serving with Lima Company RSP in Mattoon attached to Company B 2nd 130th Infantry in Effingham.

Hunter lost his life June 13, 2016 due to injuries from a car accident.

Hunter's final opportunity to serve others was his gift of organ donation. Through his donation of organs he saved the lives of five people. His tissue donations brought sight to two people and improved the lives of more than 100 individuals.

What is the Hunter Barns Memorial? The Hunter Barns Memorial Foundation NFP is a (501) (c)(3) not-for-profit organization. The foundation was created to honor Hunter and to bless others. The organization primarily promotes educational welfare to benefit the Altamont, Illinois community.

The foundation has awarded nine $500 scholarships since 2017.

