Vol. 5 No. 1 ~ Spring 2020

No other vintage custom in VCMEC Online World Championships history has won as many Victory Laps as Jamil Mhuratt! To celebrate his sixth Victory Lap this issue, owner-photographer Cheryl Ridge created this montage of her Arab stallion, CMed by Sarah Minkiewicz in the 1980s.

A Word to the Fore: Tomorrow's Yesterdays, Today!

Words on a page can be a time-capsule. That's the case for me; when I look at a past issue of the Re-View, reading its "Word to the Fore" prompts vivid memories of where I was when writing it, and things that were going on at the time.

With COVID-19 turning the world upside-down between last issue and this--as of today there are 1,407,123 confirmed cases worldwide with 80,759 deaths, including the U.S.'s 383,256 confirmed cases and 12,021 deaths--I've been a little overwhelmed at the thought of trying to express the enormity of these days' situation on this page this issue.

Should I mention the near-frantic worry I feel for friends here and abroad, with it so easy to come into harm's way? The combination of relief and melancholy I feel with our vintage customs all away in storage? The blessing that I work in agriculture, an essential industry, and can work from home even though I'm still in training, thanks to my kind teammates helping me remotely? The love and gratitude in our household, as all my brother's "what if" musings since Skylab's crash in '79 have culminated in carefully planned preparations to keep us safe, sanitary, and fed as we shelter in place?

So many emotions. So much looking forward to looking back on how we all managed to make it through. And so much just wanting distractions...the online wanderlust for which actually led to a stunning score for the VCMEC Hobby House and Museum last week!

I've mentioned previously that we'll include an exhibit in tribute to Pilot Medium, the pivotal grey Standardbred trotting stallion who stood at stud in Battle Creek, Mich., until his untimely death in 1896--just four years before the home-to-be of VCMEC was built nearby.

And then there's last week's score... In wandering online in search of distractions, I stumbled across a seller of vintage ephemera--some of it horse-related--and scrolled through each of his site's several pages, 'cause you won't find if you don't look...and found myself suddenly stopped and blinking in shock. There. It. Was. An actual 1892 booklet advertising Pilot Medium at stud for that season! (It shipped today; here's hoping it won't crumble enroute...!)

Back to this issue: Thanks so much to Cheryl Ridge of Australia, who created the cover image of her Jamil Mhuratt, the gorgeous grey who's earned a record sixth Victory Lap! Beginning on the next page, you'll find a reference list of the 99 horses who've won Victory Laps to date, after taking Overall Champion or Reserve titles in legs of the 2016-17 and 2018-19 VCMEC Online World Championships series.

Mondo thanks go to Sue Sudekum, who judged the 2018-19 series' concluding leg; those results follow the Victory Lap reference list. Next issue, in late June, will feature the grand awarding of VCMEC World Championship titles! To count down until then, though, we have something exciting in the works: live video reveals, three times a month, in April, May, and June! Specific times will be announced on VCMEC.com and the Vintage Custom Model Equine Center page on Facebook. 'Til next, please be safe!

-Sparky C.

Update on VCMEC Live III

On Feb. 3, we made this announcement on VCMEC.com and the VCMEC Facebook page regarding the third edition of our biennial live show, Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress (VCMEC Live for short), which had been scheduled for Friday, March 13:

"With so many folks telling us they'd love to come to a Saturday

VCMEC Live but are just not able to make it to a Friday show, and with no entrants to date for VCMEC Live III on Friday the 13th next month, we've decided it would be best for all to postpone this event until Spring 2021. We're sorry it will be longer until we can get together again, but we have our eye on a Saturday sure to please, and will share the details as soon as we've got 'em nailed down!"

As it turned out, due to COVID-19 having reached the area, Dallas County issued a court order March 12 prohibiting community gatherings of 500 people or more as of March 13. That shut down All-Con, the event that VCMEC Live III would have been held in conjunction with, had we not made the call--a darn lucky call!--in February to postpone our show.

With so much in flux, it might be a while before there are concrete details, but we look forward to seeing you next year at VCMEC Live III!

Ninety-nine Champions Strong: The Victory Lap, 2016-2020

It's been a gathering of champions unlike any other!

After each of the dozen legs to date of the VCMEC Online World Championships, the owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs, to appear in the Victory Lap section of the VCMEC Model Horse Re-View.

Their insights and memories have made for great reading-- and now here's a handy guide to which issue each of those 99 model equines so far enjoyed the spotlight! (Issues are listed in bold when there is commentary about the horse, and in bold capital letters for Triple Crown winners.)

CHAMPION EXTREME REMAKE/RE-PAINT/HAIR OR SCULPTED MANE/ TAIL: MISTY THREE-KAY (AC)

Ardith Carlton writes, "Some years ago in a pinch, I sadly sold Darklighter, a CAS repainted dark dapple grey by Nancy Strowger. I still miss him terribly--but when Liz Bouras decided to part with this lighter grey fellow in 2012, it sure helped take the edge off that heartache!

"At the time, I had been quite moved by Isao Sasaki's performance of a song called 'Kaze no Kaiwa' ('The Wind's Conversation') at a Tokyo concert, so very nearly named him for the song (his digital photos are still titled 'kazenokaiwa')...but then recalled that Isao Sasaki was also the performer of the theme songs for Science Ninja Team Gatchaman, a Japanese anime franchise that Nancy Strowger had been into. So instead I named him Sasaki...although he still reminds me of the wind! I love him lots, and am so happy he's doing well in the VCMEC show series!

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they said!

SASAKI

Grey Arabian stallion, CM by Nancy Strowger in 1977

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed

"P.S. One of the highlights of my time in Japan was getting to meet Isao Sasaki at a special event for one of my own favorite anime series he sang theme songs for, Space Battleship Yamato (a.k.a. Star Blazers)."

TADEUSZ

Grulla Oldenburg/Quarter Horse-cross stallion, CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "Speaking of songs, country tune 'I've Been Everywhere' wouldn't seem amiss for this sturdy guy! Formerly part of Liz Bouras' epic gathering of Strowgers, Tadeusz next joined Jeannine DeCuir's gorgeous gang. I was thrilled to acquire him from Jeannine in 2013! Didn't give his past history much thought until recently, though--when he turned up in For Sale ads from other hobbyists in various old hobby publications! (Was leafing through boxes-full at the time and don't recall the specifics now, drat...really looking forward to cataloging info like that when the Remake Roundup vintage custom database is ready!)

"With those past travels done, 'Tad' is enjoying a good, long stay here (although he had to endure a trip to Japan and back). I love his rich grulla coat and the ahead-of-her-time sculpting that Nancy Strowger put into his mane and tail braiding and flawless rebuild of his neck where his plastic mane was removed. Am so proud of his placings in the VCMEC series' super-tough competition--thank you so much to the judges!"

WICKENDEN OSPREY

Grey Welsh Sec. B stallion, CM by Cheryl Abelson and Cindy Derreseau in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "The RR (what CM was called back in the day) Grand Champion of the 1979 Model Horse Congress, foremost live show of its time, Wickenden Osprey was for years a celebrity in Liz Bouras' superstar stable. I visited her place in 1986, and as she handled him almost reverently and reeled off his accomplishments, I thought about what a responsibility it must be to be the caretaker of such an intimidatingly iconic horse.

"Just over a quarter-century later, Liz invited offers for some of her treasures, and I asked after Osprey. Liz explained that he was in need of restoration; Cheryl Abelson had haired his mane and tail with hair from her English Sheepdog, but the hair had disintegrated over time, and he also needed some minor touch-ups. With my promise to get him restored, Liz allowed me to buy him! Meghann Hoscheid then did a wonderful job restoring him.

"This is my eighth year of responsibility for safeguarding this 'foxy grandpa' of a hobby legend...and Osprey seems to be showing his appreciation in the showing, in mainstream photo shows as well as in the VCMEC series. I'm so grateful to Liz for the opportunity to look after him!"

AKASHA

Bay Arabian filly, CM by Julie Froelich and Nancy Strowger in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "This cutie was another purchase from Liz Bouras, back in 2010. The darndest thing happened with Akasha last November, though!

"When we were getting ready for Lucy Kusluch's GAPPWT ('Grown-Ass People Playing With Toys' ;-)) live fun show, my partner Corky was searching for her family of vintage custom Classic Arabians by Julie Froelich--stallion Shuichi, mare *Enyaa, and baby Solana--to enter in the show's Family class. We currently have our horses in storage, each wrapped in gauze-like floating row cover so air can reach them. After finding Shuichi and *Enyaa together, Corky brought along the foal next to them without unwrapping it, since that of course would be Solana.

"When we got to the show, though, the foal turned out to be Akasha! Since Solana's tag was already written, Corky went ahead and entered Akasha as Solana--who would know?"

"After the class, shower Lisa Wickham came over. 'Did that foal used to be named Akasha?' she asked. 'I judged her years ago in a photo show and have never forgotten her!' What a tribute!"

TEJAS TREASURE

Black tovero half-Arabian stallion, CM by Jo Maness in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Verna McCausland writes, "I have had Treasure for many many years. Jo Maness was a mentor for me when I first started to CM models, we did a lot of trades and that is how I got him. Sadly I traded the foal that came with him.

"This boy has stood the test of time and is truly a treasure here!! He is just a very simple repaint on a Proud Arab Stallion, done way back in the mid '70s. I got him probably not long after he was created and photo showed him for years as 'Dazzle Me.' Changed his name to Tejas Treasure when I realized what a gem and part of history he is."

TINY HARPER

Chestnut varnish semi-leopard Appaloosa stallion, CM by Nancy Strowger in 1977

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "Known at one time as Sierra El Rayo, Tiny is another alumnus of Liz Bouras' stable of Strowgers. I love how Nancy painted his molded mane to give the illusion it's shorter!"

JAMIL MHURATT

Grey Arabian stallion, CM by Sarah Minkiewicz (-Breunig) in the 1980s
1980s Overall Champion Breed and Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Cheryl Ridge writes, "So lovely to know Jamil Mhuratt is being appreciated by the judges, if he has indeed taken another overall championship. ;-) Unfortunately I am going to struggle to come up with something new at this time. Perhaps you could run the montage I have just put together?" [Editor's note: Indeed we will, Cheryl--it makes a lovely cover image! Congratulations on this record sixth Victory Lap for Jamil Mhuratt!]

GALIENT

Chesnut Suffolk Punch stallion, CM by Julie Froelich in 1989
1980s Overall Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "Commissioned from Julie Froelich by Marney Walerius, Galient was auctioned at Marney's 1992 estate sale for $300. Years later, I was so happy to acquire him from Jenny Palmer!

"I remember when he was in the works, Julie mentioned how Marney was having her lavish this guy with mondo-caliber stallion goodness. Good thing he's a draft horse, with all those memories and, heh-heh, himself, to carry!"

BLOODBATH HIGHWAY

Dun overo Paint/Mustang-cross gelding, CM by Carol Williams in 1987
1980s Overall Champion Workmanship

Corky Visminas writes, "Many model horses are created specifically for performance. Bloodbath Highway fits that category, designed to be a bareback bronc or saddle bronc. In fact, when I purchased him, he came with his very own custom-made bareback bronc set.

"With a little imagination and carefully chosen tack, obstacles and props, though, he could compete in a wide variety of performance classes, with varying degrees of success and/or suitability for the job. Consider Western Not-Quite-A-Pleasure, a particularly wild sort of Hunter Over Fences, and possibly Carriage Obstacle Driving (be prepared to file an insurance claim for your destroyed carriage, however).

"However, it's been suggested that if placed on his back, he could be shown as a horse having an enthusiastic roll in the grass, so maybe that would be a safer option than performance!"

PENNY DREADFUL

Silver dapple American Modern Shetland mare, CM by Julie Froelich in 1987
1980s Overall Res. Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "I'm such a sucker for a big trot--so the moment I saw this remade Little Bit in one of Julie's production auctions, it was instant love! Was lucky to land her. Don't recall what her name originally was, but when I lifted her from the shipping box, 'Penny Dreadful' suggested itself. Was so tickled when Julie commented that it was perfect for her!

"Penny and I had a lot of fun together, but in a dental emergency, I tearfully parted with her. What a thrill it was almost 20 years later when Liz Bouras wrote out of the blue, 'I have Penny Dreadful but think she belongs back with you...!' ! leaped at the chance to buy Penny back (thank you again, Liz!), and am so happy to be making up for lost time with her in VCMEC!"

THE AFRICAN SUN

Bay tobiano Paint mare, CM by Carol Williams in 1987

1980s Overall Res. Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "In the Spring 2018 issue's Victory Lap, I wrote how this dynamic remade Breyer Polo Pony barreled off a page in Paint Horse Journal right into my heart, and eventually, astonishingly, into my hands. I mentioned she came with her own Rio Rondo western saddle; now, here's the rest of the story!

"Live-showing this can-do gal in the '90s was like a dream: Just saddle her, wrap her heels or buckle on boots, point her at her work, and whether it was cutting, cow work, games, even natural trail descending a hill, she'd find a way to not only win, and nab the Western championship, but demand the Overall Performance championship, too! F'rinstance, in the VCMEC Cinema 1994 Greater Pittsburgh live show videos on YouTube, versatile performance horses and ingenious showers were there...and yet, from her few Western specialties, The African Sun took the trophy! With this mare, you're just along for the ride--and it's been a thrilling one!"

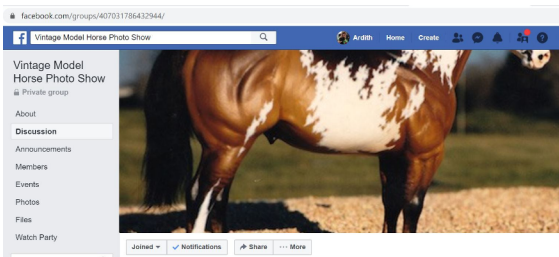

MARS FLASH

Dun overo Paint stallion, CM by Carol Williams in 1990

1990s Overall Champion Color and Overall Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "Not much to add after spilling his secrets in the Winter 2017 and Spring 2017 issues' Victory Laps...except that after he was named Grand Champion in last month's Color Stock Breeds leg of Deb Carlson's Vintage Model Horse Photo Show on Facebook, Mars Flash accomplished something his sire Naoto Nisei only dreams of: Having his sheath featured as the cover image atop a Facebook page!"

asked her once and she responded that she doesn't like the Trakehner mold, in any way. Nowadays we only laugh at it. I don't take showing seriously. It's only a fun thing I can do with my horses!"

MARQUESA

Bay Peruvian Paso mare, CM by Paige Easley (-Patty) in 1994

1990s Overall Res. Champion Breed

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Marquesa is the Breyer Legionario CM by Paige Easley-Patty. I purchased her at BreyerFest directly from the artist and have shown her very lightly.

"I am a BIG fan of gaited horses and always have been. She is not my usual sort of attraction, being dark bay, but I liked her so much I bought her anyway. She is a stately gal, a Peruvian Paso mare that is understated elegance. I am just tickled someone else liked her too!"

AMANTUS VS

Brown Trakehner stallion, CM by Diane Capwell in the early 1990s

1990s Overall Champion Breed

Sophie Nordstrom writes, "Did you know that I almost put Amantus up for sale at one point? I had an idea of reducing my (big...) collection and he was among the ones I choosed. Then I looked at him. And he glanced down at me, as the king he is, from his spot on the shelf. And he had to stay!"

"I have showed Amantus on both live- and photo shows and he always do really great. Except when a good friend of mine judge. She always puts him last in his class. I

RAGNAROK HYOGA

Dun Fjord stallion, CM by Julie Froelich in 1992

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "Hooray for 'Rockyhocks'! That nickname attached itself when I was lucky enough to have high bid on him in Julie Froelich's 1992 production auction. On a visit to Norway, she'd seen Fjords with a 'hand-hold' of hair left long at the withers, and included that charming detail on Rockyhocks. He's a Breyer Haflinger with a heck of a lot of work, and everything about him brings a smile, from his willing expression to his action--just look at him go!"

MISTY THREE-KAY

Bay roan semi-leopard American Saddlebred/Appaloosa-cross mare, CM by Julie Froelich in 1990

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "Once a San Domingo, this fabulous mare, then named Viva Le Shok, sold with wildly spotted mule foal Pop Art at heel in one of Julie Froelich's production auctions. I didn't have the firepower to make them mine, but some years later she turned up for sale, separated from her foal, and I knew there'd never be another chance!"

"One of the best times of my life was getting to experience Mystery Science Theater 3000's 1994 ConventioCon ExpoFest-A-Rama with Julie. We got to meet the cast and tour the set, and see the live show twice! (Julie even has history with then-producer Jim Mallon: In their days at Univ. of Wisconsin, he ran a parody campaign that made her real mare 'Senator' Roberta.) So it was a natural to rename this gal for MST3K: Misty Three-Kay! She's statuesque, sweet of face, wrapped in a mind-blowing hide...and one of my all-time favorite model horses!"
