

VIKTOR LE

Laurent Viktor Ewing Givens ("16) is an Interdisciplinary artist from Houston TX whose creative practice engages space, material, place and improvisational narrative. Viktor received his MFA at Columbia College Chicago in the department for Book and Paper Arts, Viktor is exploring Performance Ritual, Installation, and Book production as method of preserving, distorting and reimagining relationships to history and time. Middle child of three Viktor's favorite color is purple and delights in cooking and dancing. " Art is a tool to protect the ones we love, build the world we deserve, sustain the communities we are in and explore our passions and desires". He extends gratitude to the grantor of grace and space and appreciates the moment to share his creative vision.
