Wanggaard Continues to Build Local Support with 12 New Endorsements

Opponent Relies on Out-of-District Support

Sturtevant - Following an endorsement earlier this week by the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation, the Wanggaard campaign announced the endorsements of a dozen additional local leaders today. The following officials announced their support of Wanggaard and his campaign to retake the 21st Senate District.

Kenosha County Supervisor Mike Skalitzky
Burlington Alderman Ed Johnson
Burlington Alderman Jon Schultz
Racine County Board Supervisor and Waterford Village President Tom Roanhouse
Town of Norway Supervisor Robert Hellbach
Town of Norway Supervisor Tim Hansen
Town of Norway Supervisor Michael Lyman
Town of Norway Supervisor Ralph Schopp
Town of Dover Supervisor Scott Willkomm
Village of Wind Point Trustee Martin Meissner
Former Racine Unified School Board Member Brian Dey
Former Village of Union Grove Trustee Harold Smart

"I am humbled by the outpouring of support from both elected officials and the grassroots in Racine and Kenosha Counties," said Wanggaard.

"While my opponent seeks support from people out of the district, and out-of-state special interest groups, I'll continue to build upon my impressive local, in-district support thanks to my proven, trusted conservative record."

Over 70 state and local officials have endorsed Wanggaard in his bid to retake the 21st Senate District, including Congressman Paul Ryan, Speaker Robin Vos, Representative Samantha Kerkman, and Representative Tom Weatherston. For a full list of endorsements visit www.voteforvan.com.
