

Five Quail Books

AMMO CAN BOOKS

Books that fit in your ammo-can, with the ideal information and campfire entertainment for your next Grand Canyon Colorado River trip. If you want more than the ever-popular Lindemann river guide, send us an email with the titles and we'll work out the details for payment by personal check or through PayPal so that you have your books before you launch date.

Lindemann, Linda Lou (compiled by) - COLORADO RIVER BRIEFS FOR A TRIP THROUGH THE GRAND CANYON. Lundquist Press, Arizona, 2012 updated edition, 8vo., topo map wraps, plastic coil binding, 154pp., maps, cartoon-style illustrations by Dan Lindemann, biblio. Lindemann has compiled in this book the facts about names, canyons and events along the 225 miles of river from Lee's Ferry to Diamond Creek. This reference should be helpful to the private river runners when looking for campsites and running rapids.

New. $17.95

Belknap, Buzz and Loie Belknap Evans. BELKNAP'S GRAND CANYON RIVER GUIDE. Westwater Books, Nevada, pict. wraps, river map, historic photographs. Colorado River: Lees Ferry, Arizona, to Lake Mead, through Marble and Grand Canyons, 288 miles. Handy detailed mile-by-mile guide to the River by a veteran guide. Loaded with historic and contemporary photos, many from the files of the late Dock Marston. Highly recommended.

Waterproof edition, 2011. New. $22.95 ...temporarily out of stock

Martin, Tom. DAY HIKES FROM THE RIVER. A Guide to 75 Hikes from Camps on the Colorado River in Grand Canyon National Park. Vishnu Temple Press, Arizona, 8vo., 1999, 1st edition, pict. wraps, 172pp., maps. Ever wonder where Harry McDonald carved his initials on a tree during the ill fated 1889 Stanton Brown Expedition through Grand Canyon? Did you know about the hike out to the Rim at South Canyon? How about the short hike to the petroglyphs at Tanner, or the location of the water jug filling spot at Phantom Ranch? Do you know there are 3 pull-in spots to access Matkatamiba Canyon? Ever wonder what the hike to Mooney Falls in Havasu is like, or what the winter sun potential at Tuckup is like? Did you know there are some amazing narrows at 193 Mile, or what the summer shade at Parashant is like? Have you seen the Rock Art at 202 Mile, and did you know there's a water source just a few miles downriver from there? In DAY HIKES FROM THE RIVER, author, hiker and river runner Tom Martin offers river runners through Grand Canyon National Park the first text on exploring Grand Canyon National Park from the Colorado River. Besides a description of each hike, the text includes the best camps to stage the hike from.

New. $16.95 ...please check availability first

Martin, Tom. DAY HIKES FROM THE RIVER. A Guide to 100 Hikes from Camps on the Colorado River in Grand Canyon National Park. Vishnu Temple Press, Arizona, 2010, 4th edition, 8vo., pict. wraps, 224 pp., maps. Ever wonder where Harry McDonald carved his initials on a tree during the ill fated 1889 Stanton Brown Expedition through Grand Canyon? Did you know about the hike out to the Rim at South Canyon? How about the short hike to the petroglyphs at Tanner, or the location of the water jug filling spot at Phantom Ranch? Do you know there are 3 pull-in spots to access Matkatamiba Canyon? Ever wonder what the hike to Mooney Falls in Havasu is like, or what the winter sun potential at Tuckup is like? Did you know there are some amazing narrows at 193 Mile, or what the summer shade at Parashant is like? Have you seen the Rock Art at 202 Mile, and did you know there's a water source just a few miles downriver from there? In DAY HIKES FROM THE RIVER, author, hiker and river runner Tom Martin offers river runners through Grand Canyon National Park the first text on exploring Grand Canyon National Park from the Colorado River. Besides a description of each hike, the text includes the best camps to stage the hike from. New. $21.95

Lago, Don - GRAND CANYON TRIVIA. Riverbend Publishing, Montana, 2009, 8vo., pict. wraps, 109pp. The Grand Canyon is full of wonder--and so is this book. Here you will find the biggest and smallest, longest and shortest, first and last, weirdest and wildest, and the who, what, and where of the Grand Canyon. From rim to rim with the canyon and river in between, Grand Canyon Trivia offers something fascinating, fun, and little known about everything. Take it on a hike, pack it in your raft, carry it on a mule, or enjoy it around a campfire. You can even use it to quiz your companions and play a trivia game. These trivial trifles, treasures, and treats will keep you laughing, learning, and guessing. It's fun-tastic! Great for curious kids, inquisitive visitors, and inquiring hikers, and smart travelers. New. $9.95 ...please check availability first

Riddle, Dorothy Lees – SING FOR THE RIVER. A Collection of River Songs. Yee-Hah! Inc, Arizona, 2003, 8vo., wire-comb binding pict. wraps, 276pp., illustrated by John Michael Riddle. This songbook offers the melody, lyrics, and guitar chords to a select variety of popular hit songs and classic river favorites. New. $24.95

Quayle, Amil - GRAND CANYON AND OTHER SELECTED POEMS. Black Star Press, Nebraska, 2009, 8vo., pict. wraps, 112pp., illus. Foreword by Brad Dimock. There are 39 illustrations beginning with the cover photo by Bob Jones of Quayle's son taking the boat through Upset Rapid and ending with Jay Healy's photo series "The Flip," where the churning water of Lava Falls upsets the boat Quayle is in. Historic pieces from the Grand Canyon National Park Museum Collection are placed with some poems. Family photos and art by Quayle, Tom Meyers, Julie Thomson and Robert Thomson are coupled with others. The 70 poems are based on his experiences as a boatman, horseman, professor, artist and traveler. Each explores a relationship in Quayle's life, whether with the Canyon, the water, the land, family, or fellow travelers. Amil Quayle was born near the Henry's Fork of the Snake River in St. Anthony, Idaho, in 1938. As a boy, he and his brother and friends spent many happy hours playing on the banks and in the water of that magnificent stream in southeast Idaho. Through high school he worked on various farms and developed a deep appreciation and love for the land. In 1961 he ran his first river trip and has been hooked ever since. He was a full-time guide, mostly in the Grand Canyon, for many years and earned a B.S. degree in sociology from the University of Utah. Amil sold his river business and ranched in Nebraska for seven years. He then received an M.A. and a Ph.D. in English from the University of Nebraska and taught English for Utah State University and Idaho State University. But his heart is on the river, and he has been privileged to guide on many trips throughout his adventurous life. His two sons, and two of his grandchildren, are river guides; five other grandchildren are showing river guide potential. New. $15.00

Page updated: February 2, 2012

Five Quail Books

Dan & Diane Cassidy

1280 Morning Glory Lane

Prescott AZ 86305

928.776.9955

5quail@GrandCanyonBooks.com

Home About us Ordering

New Releases Catalog 32 Catalog 31 Catalog 30 Trail Guides-River Guides Catalog 29 Catalog 28 Catalog 27 Catalog 26

Catalog 25

2008 Native American Book List 2008 Geology/Archaeology/Miscellaneous Book List

Updated: October 15, 2014