

— The strain in serving disturbed adolescents shows in the rigidity of many programs. To keep the school operation intact, and prevent the collapse of a house of cards, a unitary system is imposed on every youngster, in clear violation of the legal call for individualization. I see a great deal of arbitrary punishment passing for healing....What districts yet

It's All About Choices!

Youth Intervention Programs Help Youth Make The Right Choice!

attend to mental health failures as thoroughly as they examine for reading failures?

William C. Morse, 1989