Sanctioned Show Rules of the American Boer Goat Association Revised December 5, 2014

Sanctioned Show Rules

Eligibility of Animals

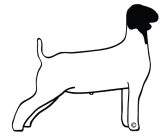

1. All goats must be registered in the ABGA herd book by the date specified by the show.
2. All goats entered into ABGA sanctioned shows must be registered with the ABGA in order to acquire Ennoblement points.
3. Original registration certificates are required, except that a copy of a registration application, stamped with the date received by one of the listed associations, can be accepted for kids less than 3 months of age. Animals over the age of 3 months must have the original registration certificate in hand at time of show.
4. All goats must be appropriately identified and comply with USDA Scrapie Eradication Program Guidelines. Call 1-888-USDA TAG (873-2824) or visit the following website for more information: http://www.aphis.usda.gov/animal_health/animal_diseases/scrapie/
5. ABGA prohibits the transfer of any goat exhibited in a JABGA sanctioned show back to the seller and/or seller's agent for a period of one year from date of purchase for all goats that are not bred and owned by the JABGA exhibitor.

Show Focus

1. The American Boer Goat Association will accept and permanently record all wins in Shows that have been determined to have met all requirements (as stated below) for ABGA sanctioning.
2. Failure to comply with ABGA Show Rules may result in the loss of sanctioning and funding, where applicable.
3. Effective June 1, 2009, for shows on or after January 1, 2010, ABGA requires that an ABGA
4. Sanctioned Show Application be submitted to the ABGA office no less than 120 days prior to the show.

ROLLING HILLS CASINO BOERANZA

5. No show will be sanctioned during the week of the ABGA National Show.

Purpose

1. The main focus of ABGA Sanctioned Shows is the genetic improvement of the Boer breed and promotion of the goat industry.

Entries

1. There should be no limit on the number of animals that can be entered in a class by an exhibitor, unless the sponsoring show deems this limit necessary.
2. Any show limiting the number of entries in any way must state this in their rules.
3. ABGA sanctioned shows may not require animals to sell in a sale as a condition of participating in the show.
4. When the original registration certificates are presented at check-in, registered name, ABGA registration number and tattoos of each animal must be recorded so that they may be displayed on the results that are turned in to the ABGA office.

Ennobled Herd Book Points

1. Only goats entered under their ABGA registration number and presenting their ABGA Certificate of Registration will be eligible to earn points for their actual placing in the show as described in the ABGA Criteria for Ennoblement of a Boer Goat. (See Rule 1000, Ennoblement Program)
2. Points for ABGA Sanctioned Shows will be awarded based on the following schedule:

Tattoos

1. All goats must have legible tattoos consistent with the registration certificate or the animal will be disqualified. If an animal is disqualified due to illegible or inconsistent tattoos, all lower placing animals will be moved up in placement. Point winners from each class must have their tattoos read and recorded. The judge will be responsible for ensuring that tattoos are read and properly recorded. The show secretary will be responsible for recording the tattoos and informing the judge as to which point-eligible goats will need to be checked.

Computing Ages

ROLLING HILLS CASINO BOERANZA

1. Birth dates, as listed on the registration certificate, will be used in determining class divisions. In order to calculate the class breaks, take the show date and count back to the birth date to determine the age and the class for the animal.

Classes

1. All animals must be registered Purebred, Fullblood, or percentage blood Boer goats. Divisions are according to the chart below.
2. Bucks 96.86% and lower are not eligible to be shown.
3. Progeny of fresh does will not be allowed in the ring with their dam.
4. At the discretion of the judge and the superintendent, the animals may be let loose in the ring as a function of judging.
5. The Champion and the Reserve Champion classes will be chosen from the first and second place animals in that division of the show.
6. Divisions will be defined as follows:

Animal Division	Percentage of Boer
Percentage Does	50% to 88%
Fullblood/Purebred Does	93.75% and higher
Fullblood/Purebred Bucks	96.87% and higher

Show Responsibilities

1. It is recommended that the show provide a ring steward to assist in the ring.
2. It is the responsibility of the Show Secretary to have a copy of the ABGA Official Show Rules available at all times in case any questions arise during the course of the show.
3. In addition, the show report must be completed by the Show Secretary, and should be forwarded to the ABGA office within 30 days of the show. The report must include the following:
 - a. Class
 - b. Number of Animals exhibited in the Class
 - c. Each Animal's Name
 - d. Each Animal's ABGA Registration Number
 - e. Identifying Tattoos (left and right)
4. Any animal that is not checked in with an ABGA registration certificate will not receive recognition in any ABGA publication or website. Such animals are not eligible for ennoblement points.
5. A copy of scheduled classes and applying entity rules must be sent to the ABGA.
6. Changes and/or corrections to the official show results, once they have been turned in to the ABGA office, will require the signature of the Show Secretary and one other show official.

Exhibitor Responsibilities

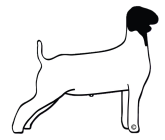

1. No animal bracing allowed at ABGA Sanctioned Shows
2. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to refrain from presenting any animal owned by the presiding judge within 90 days prior to the show date.

Disqualification

1. Any goat exhibited at an ABGA or JABGA sanctioned show or event shall be subject to disqualification for any of the following:
 - a. Any pronounced defect or abnormality.
 - b. Tattoos that are illegible or inconsistent with the registration certificate.
 - c. Any animal found not to be in accordance with Rule 1400.L. Acceptable Practices and Substances.
2. Should any animal that has been awarded a prize be disqualified before its class has been dismissed from the show ring, the lower placing animals shall move up to fill the vacancy. Should any animal be disqualified after the class has been dismissed from the show ring, the lower placing animals will not move into any higher position.

Acceptable Practices and Substances

1. No person shall conspire with another person or persons to intentionally violate, or knowingly contribute or cooperate with another person or persons either by affirmative action or inaction to violate any part of these Rules & Regulations.
 - a. Permitted Practices and Substances
 - i. Drenches as needed, and as directed on the label, for animal health and well-being.
 - ii. Drugs and other substances labeled for use in goats to treat health issues in an exhibited goat. Any extra-label usage requires a prescription, or statement for use from the attending veterinarian.
 - iii. Grooming products that are not restricted from use in meat producing animals, including: brushes, combs, clippers, hoof trimmers, shampoos, conditioners, oils, mousse, alcohol/liniment, sprays, and powders.
 - b. Prohibited Practices and Substances
 - i. Injection or external or internal administration via any orifice of any substance (including drugs, chemicals, and any other forms of products) prohibited from use in meat producing animals by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), and/or any Federal, State or Local Law.
 - ii. Extra-label use of any drug or substance approved for use on meat producing animals, but not approved for use in goats (even though commonly used in goats), unless accompanied by a licensed veterinarian's prescription or statement of use while on the show premises.
 - iii. Injection or external or internal administration via any orifice of any allowed substance in any way that is inconsistent with the dosage and the route prescribed by the manufacturer or prescribing veterinarian.
 - iv. Administration of any quantity of any diuretic, growth stimulant, or performance-enhancing drug.
 - v. Filling and/or tubing of an animal.
 - vi. Presenting any animal whose natural conformation and structure have been surgically altered in any way, with the exception of:
 1. Removal of horns; and/or
 2. Removal in testicles in the case of wethers.
 - vii. Using any inhumane or unethical treatments, including striking animals, using electrical contrivance, or other similar methods.
 - viii. Using any paints or dyes.
 - ix. Attaching any objects, including hair or hair substitutes, cloth, or fiber to the animal for the purpose of deception.
 - x. Injection or external or internal administration via any orifice of any substance, whether gas, solid, or liquid, not conducive to continued animal health or marketability.
 - xi. Tissue or fluid manipulation, removal, surgical attachment or otherwise to change, conceal, enhance, or transform the true conformation or configuration of the animal.
 - xii. Administering any substance that artificially induces lactation.
 - xiii. Any substance, regardless of how harmless or innocuous it might be, which might interfere with the detection or quantization of any substance prohibited by ABGA.

Drug Testing Policy

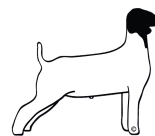

1. ABGA reserves the right to perform random drug testing of any animal at any ABGA or JABGA sanctioned show. The cost of associated veterinary services and laboratory fees will be incurred by ABGA.

Responsibility

1. These rules provide for absolute responsibility for an animal's condition by the currently listed owner, whether or not he was actually instrumental in, or had actual knowledge of, the treatment of the animal determined to be in violation of these rules.

ROLLING HILLS CASINO BOERANZA

Consent

1. By attending an ABGA or JABGA sanctioned show or event, the owner warrants that animals shall be presented free of violative drug residues. The act of entering an animal in a sanctioned show is the giving of consent by the owner for show management to obtain any specimens of urine, saliva, blood, or other substances from the animal to be used in testing. In the case that there is a violation of these rules, the act of entering the animal in a sanctioned show is giving consent to have any disciplinary action taken by the ABGA against such individual published in any publication of ABGA's choosing.

Testing

1. The conclusions reached by the laboratory of ABGA's choosing shall be final and binding without recourse against the ABGA or any of its officers, agents or sanctioned show officials. If the laboratory tests of saliva, urine, blood or other sample taken from an animal indicate the presence of any forbidden substance, this shall be prima facia evidence that such a substance has been administered to the animal internally or externally. It is presumed that the sample of urine, saliva, blood or other substance taken from the animal correctly reflect the condition of the animal at the time the sample was taken, with the burden of proving otherwise falling to the owner at any hearing conducted by ABGA regarding the matter.

Notification

1. At such time as ABGA receives written notification of a positive drug test involving a violation of these rules, ABGA shall mail written notification of this result to the responsible party(s) and shall also give notification via telephone, when possible.

Penalties

1. Any participant in an ABGA or JABGA sanctioned event found to be in non-compliance with the accepted practices and substances outlined herein shall be subject to any of the disciplinary actions available to the ABGA Board of Directors as part of Rule 900. Additionally, or alternatively, the Board may impose any or all of the following disciplinary actions:
 - a. Forfeiture. Forfeit awards, monies, points, placings or titles earned.
 - b. Animal Ineligible to Show. The animal may be banned from competing at any future ABGA and JABGA sanctioned shows. The owner must surrender the registration certificate to ABGA within 30 days of receipt of notice to be marked as ineligible to show. In the event the owner fails to surrender the certificate, they will be subject to additional sanctions by the ABGA Board of Directors. A list of these ineligible animals will be maintained by ABGA and provided to show superintendents.

Show Support System (All show support is at the discretion of ABGA)
