

Socrates on Trial Vocabulary

Accuser: A person who accuses somebody of doing something bad.

Atheist: Somebody who doesn't believe in God.

Condemn: To punish someone after deciding that he or she is guilty.

Corrupt: To encourage another person to be bad.

Guilty: Deserving of a penalty, opposite of innocent.

Indictment: A formal charge framed by a prosecuting authority.

Inquiry: An investigation, an examination of facts.

Poison: A substance that can kill or harm living things.

Prejudice: Dislike of someone because they are different, especially because of race, sex, etc.

Reluctantly: Without desire to participate, disinclined, unwilling.

Verdict: A decision made by a jury to find someone guilty or innocent.

Wealth: Abundance of valuable material possessions, riches.

Wisdom: Accumulated philosophic or scientific knowledge.

Wise: Makes good decisions or give good advice.