

CRISIS NURSERY PROGRAM

WHAT IS A CRISIS NURSERY?

A Crisis Nursery is a licensed childcare program that provides safe, temporary childcare for children from birth to 5 years old. Crisis Nurseries help parents and caregivers manage emergencies and keep up with jobs, educational programs, and medical treatment.

WHO CAN USE THE CRISIS NURSERIES?

Parents and caregivers who:

- Need childcare while they are in the hospital, a treatment program, or at an appointment
- Need childcare while they look for work, attend an interview, or are on a waiting list to receive subsidized childcare
- Experience stress that may result in the abuse of a child
- Have a family or relationship problem in which safety is a concern
- Have another kind of emergency

WHERE ARE THE CRISIS NURSERIES?

Baring House (West Philadelphia)
open 24 hours/day, 7 days/week
3401 Baring Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104
215-386-0251
Contact: Angie Maury, Supervisor

Sally Watson Center (Germantown)
open 7:00 AM – 6:00 PM, M – F
5128 Wayne Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19144
215-844-6931
Contact: Rhonda Johnson, Supervisor

CAN I USE THE CRISIS NURSERIES?

Call one of our locations to find out. We may be able to help immediately or we may schedule an intake appointment to plan care for your child(ren).

CONTACT YOUTH SERVICE, INC.
at info@ysiphila.org
or 215-222-3262

■
Find us online
(www.ysiphila.org)

■
Like us on Facebook
(ysiyouthserviceinc)

■
Follow us on Twitter
(ysiphilly)