

Son Finds Biological Mom Homeless.

A Young man from Napa Valley searches for his estranged mom and finds her homeless for over 20 years. The encounter changes his life.

“A Place for You,” is how finding my Homeless Mom changed my life. As a baby I was found sleeping with her in the snow – she kept me alive for 7 months in the streets – She gave me away and I returned 20 years later and found her homeless for over 2 decades. I gave up everything to rescue her but she refused to come home. The experience broke me and then began to mold me. But love changed everything.

Everyone will receive something from this story that will change their life.

Story Ideas:

- How great challenges can make positive changes in your life.
- How to overcome difficulties and difficult people.
- How to surrender deep pain and live a bitter free life.
- How to Love the unlovable.
- How to convert trials so they will make you - rather than break you.

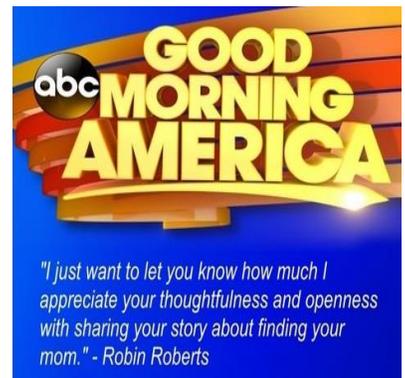

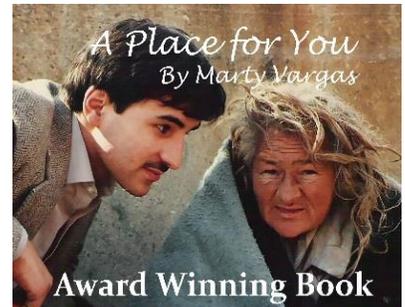

About the Author: Marty has degrees in Technology, Theology, and TV Production. He has engineered permits to build numerous TV and Radio stations. He is a media owner as well as an international speaker and documentarian. Marty has taught thousands of people how to give up deep personal pain resulting from every imaginable problem. He has lectured in eight countries. Marty has established, “Rescue Rachel,” which helps homeless youth and deters human trafficking.

He’s been featured on NBC, ABC TV in Philly, and Fox news DC as well as on 90 radio stations, and in newspapers. He is a New Book Award : (2016) as announced globally on YAHOO and REUTERS and 15 TV websites: He is the producer of the Marty Vargas Show – focusing on “Overcomers” which airs in NYC on 5 channels.

He is an Emmy awards judge and his documentary, “A Place for You,” has aired on PBS/WHUT Washington DC. People are brought to tears concerning his story. Marty lives for the purpose of serving others.

Marty Vargas, MFA

Wow- It's powerful, riveting, tearful, and inspiring.

It's consuming. I was lost in time and I couldn't put it down till I finished. When I closed the last chapter, it was 2 AM."

Jill Lublin,

Three time Best-Selling Author & International Speaker

Martyvargas.com

Martyvargas24@yahoo.com

631-935-3995 (Text First)