Urban Communities of Faith Gathering, Weds, June 19 5:30 - 9:00 PM at Heritage United Church (includes pizza supper)

This Gathering is a follow-up to the one held on February 27, 2019 at Wesley United Church where all urban Regina communities of faith (COF) were invited to participate in an informal meeting about the future of the United Church in Regina. An invitation to send 4-5 representatives from your COF is going to your church council/board. If you are interested in representing your COF, please contact your church council/board. We hope to grapple with questions such as: Does the Regina United Church community have a unique calling beyond the congregational level? What could that look like? How can we share resources, partner together, potentially amalgamate resources? How can 'we' be more than our individual congregations? How do we sustain our community ministries and is that important? The report on the first gathering held February 27 is available from the Coordinating Committee reginaareacluster@gmail.com.

Financial Update: January 1 – April 30, 2019

Eastside recorded a surplus of $26,003 during the first four months of 2019 (see below). Of this amount, $22,821 has been applied to reduce the M&S liability, and $1,000 has been applied to Eastside's 2018 Presbytery debt.

Subsequent to April 30, Eastside received two generous donations which will be sufficient to extinguish the Presbytery debt. This means that Eastside has fully repaid its $38,281 obligation at December 31, 2018 to the M&S Fund and the former Wascana Presbytery! This is an incredible achievement, and clearly shows that the congregation is willing to do what it takes to ensure the continued success of Eastside.

Eastside's sole remaining liability is its $45,190 share of the LSC mortgage. The mortgage is scheduled to be extinguished on August 31, 2024.

OUTDOOR WORSHIP SERVICE AT EASTSIDE, SUNDAY, JUNE 16! Please bring blankets or chairs to be comfy during worship. Potluck BBQ following the service – we are looking for contributions of salads, appetizers and chips. We will provide hamburgers, hot dogs, and CAKE!

Regina KAIROS Conversation, Tuesday, June 18, 2019: 6 - 8 PM, Wesley United Church, 3913 Hillsdale St., Regina, SK (in kitchen lounge: enter north-east door from parking lot)

Shannon Neufeldt from the KAIROS national office will be in Regina and would like to meet with you or representatives of your churches or communities to explore how we can strengthen our ecumenical and broader justice efforts together.

What education and advocacy work are you already doing in the areas of Migrant Justice, Indigenous Rights, Ecological Justice and Gender Justice? How could KAIROS Canada support your local efforts? How can we work together more effectively, and draw energy from each other and the broader movements?

Informal conversation will be encouraged over a potluck supper with a more organized full group discussion beginning after supper. Please join us for supper if you can or just for the discussion.

6 PM Potluck Supper – please bring something to share if you can (we'll provide tea and coffee)
