

An Introduction to Sun-style Tai Chi
Dr. Paul Lam's Tai Chi for Arthritis Program

Thursdays 5:30-6:30pm

April 4th to June 6th, 2024

Fee: $95 for 10 classes

Location: Phoenix Tai Chi Centre

19A Holborn Ave at Briscoe St. W., LONDON

Tai Chi for Arthritis" is a program designed by Paul Lam MD with a team of Tai Chi and medical experts, based on Sun-Style Tai Chi. It is easy to learn, no matter age, physical ability or prior knowledge of Tai Chi, safe and effective. Recent randomized studies have shown the program to relieve pain, improve quality of life and it is safe. The CDC also promotes Tai Chi as an exercise form to prevent falls among older adults. The program is supported by the Arthritis foundations of the USA, Australia and the UK.

The program includes warm-up, wind-down, Qigong exercises, special precautions and a set of 18 movements Tai Chi. (For those who wish to continue, the set does go to 41 moves). Sun-style is especially beneficial for arthritis because it contains powerful Qigong Exercises to enhance healing and increase energy, agile steps to improve mobility, and much depth to hold the learner's interest. The TCA set and warm-ups loosen up the musculoskeletal system, lubricating joints and tendons throughout the entire body. The slow, continuous, relaxed and repetitive movements result in dynamic stretching, which enhances flexibility, increases range of motion and strengthens muscles. The emphasis on the importance of weight transfer helps to prevent falls. Together these factors lead to improved stamina, relaxation, balance, posture and immunity.

We have two certified instructors so we will be able to offer instruction to both beginners and those who have learned most, or all of the set and want to continue to review and refine.

Instructors: Terry Lynn Clarkin – Terry Lynn has personal experience with Fibromyalgia and Osteoarthritis. She has been teaching Tai Chi for 9 years and Tai Chi for Arthritis since 2015. She was recertified by the Tai Chi for Health Institute in May 2021. George Wilkinson- George has been teaching Tai Chi for 7 years and was certified by the Tai Chi for Health Institute in May 2021 to teach Tai Chi for Arthritis.

For further Information email: terrylynnclarkin@hotmail.com or call: 519-697-4260

To Register call the Phoenix Tai Chi Centre at: 519-872-2408