Choose from Douglas or Noble Fir Christmas Tree, plus a Noble Fir Wreath or a Pointsettia

A Douglas Fir Christmas Tree is one of the most preferred varieties of Christmas Trees on the market. Douglas Fir needles are densely set and shiny, dark green or blue green and grow to about 1 to 1 ½ inches long. The Needles grow from all directions and are sheared yearly to maintain the pyramidal form. The Douglas fir gives off a sweet fir scent which will last all season long.
