

Rikki Vidak, LCSW

Rikki is a veteran social worker having over 30 years in the social work field. She obtained her MSW from Florida State University and bachelor's degree in Recreation Therapy from the University of South Alabama. Rikki has worked in the medical and mental health fields, for the majority of that time with active duty military, veterans and their families.