Prayer for Fathers

For those who have fathered us into birth, for those we call "father" who have shown us the face of our Father in heaven, for expectant fathers and those whose arms ache to cradle their own,
 for fathers who have borne the pain of losing a child,
 for fathers who have laid down their life for their children:
 May the one who is Father and Lord of all be their guide and their peace.
 For all fathers, living or dead, those nearby or those distanced by miles, disease, or division:
 May they all be embraced and strengthened by the loving arms of God, the Father of us all. Amen.

2019 Peter's Pence Collection

Next week, our second collection will be for Peter's Pence, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. A Guide to Understanding the Most Holy Trinity: The Love and Care of a Father to His Family

The story is told about how Augustine (354-387 AD, Africa), then a bishop, was grappling with the mystery of the Blessed Trinity. This happened after his conversion from a playboy life and after he bantered: "Lord, make me chaste but not yet."

Absorbed in thought one day, the brilliant bishop was walking along the seashore and saw a lad scooping water from the sea and filling up a little pit. Augustine asked the boy what he was doing. To which he replied, "I am transferring the ocean into this hole." Augustine laughed aloud, and said, "Transferring the vast sea into such a hole, that's impossible!" And the boy, who was actually an angel, said, "And that's what you are doing. In trying to unravel the mystery of the Holy Trinity, you're like transferring the ocean into a hole."

Today, we celebrate the feast of the Holy Trinity, God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit; the doctrine that there are three distinct Persons but only one God. How can we say that there are three distinct persons but only one God? Or, how can we explain that the Father and the Son are so close that their love is a person – the Holy Spirit? Yes, the Holy Trinity is a mystery. So many saints, holy men and women were given the blessings to know the secret of the mystery of the holy trinity. When we deepen our faith in Triune God we will be blessed to know the mystery of the Holy Trinity.

Today we also celebrate father's day. It is a day we remember all our fathers who sacrifice their time, energy and resources to build our community and our family. They are living witnesses of God's love and kindness, living witnesses of the gift of God's forgiveness and compassion to their families.

One day a dad who was getting ready to go to his work saw one of his sons using his electric shaver and trying to shave his head. He got mad and said, 'what are you doing? Do not you have better things to do? Do not make me mad. The son looked at him and said, "If you get mad at me then go and look at Charlie. He went and saw Charlie who already shaved his head. The dad was so mad and said to them, 'why are you doing this?'" what are you trying to prove? They looked at their dad and said, "Dad, we want to be like you."

Children imitate their parents especially their dads. Even our Lord Jesus Christ was like His earthly Father Joseph. He continued his dad's trade of being a carpenter. The bible says only one word about Joseph that is Joseph was a just man. It means he kept all the commandments of God our father and fulfilled the duty of looking after Mary and Jesus. Because of his dedication and faithfulness, angels appeared in his dreams and guided him to do great things for his family and society. When parents practice their faith, children will also imitate. Yes, from fullness only fullness will come out.

One day, a dad saw his son trying to move a heavy rock. He said to his son, "Son, are you using all your energy to move the rock?" the son who was so exhausted said, 'yes, dad of course". Then he looked at his son and said, "No son you are not. You did not ask my help'

Fathers make a big difference in children's lives. They by their examples and words make them stronger and bigger. So as we celebrate Father's day

let us pray to our Triune God to shower upon all Fathers, His countless Blessings.

Happy Father's Day
