Financial Aid and FAFSA Night at Southwestern Adventist University!

On Wednesday, October 10, at 6:30 p.m. on the campus of Southwestern Adventist University, Pechero Hall Rm. 205, a member of our student financial aid department will help parents and students navigate the complexities of the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid), explain the differences between subsidized and unsubsidized loans, Parent Plus Loans, Pell, SEOG, TEG, and other grants.

If you would like help filling out your FAFSA, parents will need to have their tax information for the 2017 tax year. This will allow both seniors and parents to properly fill out the FAFSA for this upcoming 2019 fall semester. This presentation is a must for parents of high school students! They will receive up to date scholarship information, both in general and those particular to Southwestern.
