Tuition Request Form 2017 – 2018 School Year

Cross Lutheran School is committed to providing a quality Christian Education to Pigeon and the surrounding community. It is Cross' desire to support parents financially as they help their children grow spiritually, academically, and physically. Therefore a fund has been established to assist those families that are financially burdened and are not able to pay school tuition fees in full. Below are a few questions that will help determine the financial amount to be awarded.

This application and information contained in it are kept confidential.

Do you have any unusual circumstances in your family that prevents you from paying your full financial commitment to the school? (Yes / No) If yes, please be specific about those circumstances.
