

Marquette County Fairest of the Fair Program Obligations

1. Contestant must meet all eligibility requirements.
2. Personal interviews with the judges will be held on a date to be announced later, with the coronation following that evening. Contestant must be in attendance for the personal interview and coronation.
3. The winner will be required to attend the 2018 fair and attend the 2019 coronation. All contestants are strongly encouraged to attend Dairylicious Days, along with other community events, to help promote themselves as contestants and the fair. Specific duties may be assigned to the winner at events he or she attends.
4. The winner is encouraged to represent The Marquette County Fair at surrounding community festivals. Details about this portion will be given out to the contestant after his/her application is received by the program director.
5. Should the winner not be able to fulfill his/her obligations, the first runner-up will assume the duties of the Marquette County's Fairest of the Fair.
6. The winner is required to assist during judging events at the Marquette County Fair or any events that they are not involved in as assigned.
7. The contestant must present themselves in an appropriate manner at all times when representing the fair. This includes appropriate business casual dress (no ripped jeans, short shorts, low cut tops, etc), no smoking, alcohol, tobacco or drug use, and limited cell phone use.
8. It is strongly encouraged for the 2018 Fairest to attend the 2019 State Fairs Convention to represent Marquette County at the state level.

I, _____ have read and understand the above program obligations and if I become the Marquette County Fairest of the Fair, I will agree with and follow through with these obligations. If not, the first runner-up will become eligible to become the Marquette County's Fairest of the Fair.
