UNWAVERING SUPPORT

FOR UNCOMMON HEROES™

Your Auxiliary has a booth, so the public will come, right? Not necessarily! Your booth needs to be enticing and engaging. Here are a few pointers to have a successful fundraising and/or recruitment booth:

What to Say

Practice what you'd say if someone came up to you and asked you what the VFW Auxiliary was about. An example is listed below.

You: "Hi, how are you today?"

Potential Member: "Good, thanks. What is the VFW Auxiliary/What does your organization do?"

You: "Have you heard of the Veterans of Foreign Wars – also known as the VFW?"

Potential Member: "Yes."

You: "We are the Auxiliary to the VFW; we support them in their efforts to assist veterans, active-duty military and their families.

Potential Member: "Wow. That's great!"

You: "We're active locally and nationally with more than 4,000 Auxiliaries helping America's heroes in communities just like ours. (Hand them a flier at this point and say, "Some of the ways we offer support are"):

- By being a voice for veterans, locally and on Capitol Hill; we are instrumental in assisting the VFW pass or block legislation that impacts veterans and their families.
- Assembling and mailing care packages to active-duty troops.
- Holding send-off and welcome-home events for troops.
- Spreading the word about PTSD and military/veteran suicide awareness.
- Participating in Stand-Downs and assisting homeless veterans.
- Visiting veterans in VA Hospitals, Nursing Homes and Veterans Homes.
- Offering youth scholarships and educating youth about the American Flag.
- Spreading patriotism and educating our communities about America's patriotic holidays.
- Highlight other ways your Auxiliary offers support (i.e. holiday parties for children, sponsoring a local baseball team, delivering meals to shut-ins, etc.)

RECRUITMENT BOOTH POINTERS

The Booth

- Have a tablecloth to cover the table – even if it's a plain tablecloth from the Dollar Tree, Walmart or Target.
- Have a patriotic banner and/or display board of Auxiliary information.
- Don't put out all of your materials at once; Less = More Impact! It's suggested to have the following out:
 - 25-50 member applications
 - 25-50 facts leaflets
 - 25-50 member benefit sheets
 - 50-100 Join Us Online cards

You can always restock throughout the event if you need to!

- Give people a reason to visit your booth!
 - Candy
 - Giveaways (patriotic stickers, patriotic coloring sheets, flags, pinwheels, bookmarks, pens, paper fans, etc. are all great items. Check the VFW Store at www.vfwstore.org for more ideas.)
- Get their information! A few ideas:
 - Have an e-mail sign-up sheet so you can contact them about membership or volunteer opportunities.
 - Host a drawing or raffle.
 - Invite them to "Enter to Win" a $25 or $50 grocery store, Walmart or Target gift card.
 - If your Auxiliary can afford it, host a drawing for a tablet. There are quite a few under $150.00.
 - Make sure you get their full contact information:
 - Name
 - Address
 - E-mail Address
 - Phone Number
 - Relationship to Veteran
- Follow-up with them if they give you their contact information AND
- Invite them to an upcoming Auxiliary/VFW event.

DO'S

- Wear an Auxiliary shirt and/or identifying name badge.
- Smile and say "hello" to people when they walk by your booth - even if they don't stop!
- Stand to the side of the booth, or in front of the booth, and interact with people as they walk by.
- Look people in the eye when you speak with them.
- Shake hands if appropriate.
- Acknowledge and speak with others who are with them (spouse, parents, children, etc.).
- Give them a packet of information to take with them and ask them to share the information with others.
- Have at least two people working the booth.
- Ask them to join and hand them an application. Help them fill it out if needed.

DON'TS

- Use profanity.
- Smoke while at the booth.
- Eat while at the booth.
- Talk or text on your cell phone while at the booth.
- Sit behind the booth with your arms folded in front of your chest.
- Be overbearing or overly aggressive.
- Have more than two people talk to a potential member at once; it can overwhelm them.

REMEMBER...IF YOU DON'T ASK,
THEY WON'T JOIN!
