TULIPS & WINDMILLS

AMSTERDAM to ANTWERP • 10 DAYS • BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS

HAPPINESS BLOOMS FROM WITHIN

and in this case, happiness blooms in the form of millions of vividly colored tulips at the Keukenhof Gardens in Lisse. The tulip represents elegance and grace—a fitting metaphor for your entire cruise. Look just beyond the fields of flowers to spot several of the 19 UNESCO-designated windmills of Kinderdijk, each a Dutch icon. Mother Nature’s work isn’t the only masterpiece you’ll encounter; the Hermitage Amsterdam, the Dutch branch of the acclaimed Hermitage Museum, is home to many artistic treasures. Belgian and Dutch treats will be in ample supply along the way. Your culinary team will source local ingredients for your daily meals at butcheries and markets in the quaint towns you’ll visit. Don’t go home without having a stroopwafel.

CLASSIC CHRISTMAS MARKETS

NUREMBERG to FRANKFURT • 8 DAYS • GERMANY

IF THERE'S ONE THING WE CAN ALL AGREE ON, IT'S THAT GERMANY KNOWS HOW TO CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS.

It all began more than 500 years ago, when Germany's traditional markets used to transform around the holidays into a bustling celebration glowing with festive lights, friendly faces and local delicacies. Flash forward to today, and although lighting technology has undergone an upgrade, not much else has changed in the charming city centers of Frankfurt, Bamberg and Nuremberg. Houses are dressed with garland, just like those in your favorite childhood Christmas story. The smells of cinnamon, nutmeg and gingerbread drift past the holiday carousel. Enjoy a glass of mulled wine, hot cider or, better yet, a locally brewed holiday beer, and come discover why Christmas isn't a season at all.

It's a feeling.

BORDEAUX, VINEYARDS & CHÂTEAUX

BORDEAUX to BORDEAUX • 8 DAYS • FRANCE

WINE AND DINE AS THE FRENCH DO ALONG THE DORDOGNE AND GARONNE RIVERS.

Bordeaux is a place where dreams come true, especially dreams that include sampling sweet local wine while overlooking a sprawling vineyard in Sauternes. The locals call it the douceur de vivre (sweet life), which will make perfect sense after your first sip. The walking discovery tour to the historic vineyards of Saint-Émilion also includes a wine tasting, of course. You'll want something to pair with all of the local wines, and we suggest the many regional treats from charcuterie to canelés. Excursions to farmers' markets and luxury food halls will help with that. And just as memorable as the food and drink are the age-old traditions and quaint charm you'll discover in towns and villages throughout the region.

A scenic drive along the flower-lined Route de la Corniche Fleurie captures the je ne sais quoi that makes southwest France so compelling.

Starting in Spain and winding through Portugal, the Douro River isn't one of Europe's best-known rivers, and that's exactly why we love it. We feature two itineraries on this under-the-radar gem of a waterway, both of which take you on a journey through Portugal's pristine landscapes and Spain's historic neighborhoods.

Portugal was once home to some of the world's greatest explorers. THE YANGTZE · THE MEKONG

China, Vietnam and Cambodia may share the same continent, but you'll discover that the similarities between them don't carry much further. And that's a good thing—a great thing, in fact. Each of these distinct Asian nations offers a breadth of opportunities to dive into local culture and see why tradition still reigns supreme.

China is full of secrets to be unveiled by inquiring travelers. Throughout the country, the most modern of cities juxtapose ancient civilizations, but wherever your travels take you, you'll want to try the food. For starters, a Peking Duck lunch, a tradition that was served to emperors since the 13th-century, will be waiting for you in the UNESCO-designated Temple of Heaven.

Vietnam and Cambodia are full of history, grand temples and magical lakes. These two very different locales are both on the itinerary of one incredible cruise. And with 15 days to explore, you'll have plenty of time to become enlightened by the warm and welcoming locals who treat each day as a gift.

THE NILE

One of the longest rivers in the world, the Nile has served as a lifeline for many different civilizations dating back thousands of years. Its purpose today looks a bit different. The pharaohs and their queens didn't have an ultra-luxurious floating boutique hotel to transport them through Egypt, but you do. And rest assured, you'll feel like a pharaoh during your time onboard and onshore. Many of Egypt's ancient monuments and exhibits lie along the Nile: the Temple of Luxor, the Great Pyramids and the tomb of King Tutankhamun in the Valley of the Kings. This proud country is a shimmering treasure within the desert, as made apparent by the many smiling local faces you'll encounter during your travels.

SPLENDORS OF EGYPT & THE NILE

CAIRO to CAIRO • 12 DAYS • EGYPT

CAN YOU SEE THE PYRAMIDS FROM THE RAIL OF YOUR SUITE ONBOARD OUR RIVER TOSCA?

We'd tell you, but what's the fun in that? Come discover for yourself as you cruise like a queen or king for many days full of ancient sites, influential structures and possibly a pharaoh or two. Cairo is your starting and ending point, a short way from Giza, where you'll marvel at the pyramids and Sphinx. Luxor is on the agenda too, a city home to the world's largest ancient temple complex in the middle of the desert. Discover it all from the up-close perspective of your all-suite traveling hotel.
