The Reverend's Ruminations

For some of you, summer's arrival means a little extra unstructured time in the daily schedule. Perhaps you like to work in the yard during the coolness of the early morning and stay indoors when it gets hot. Maybe your duties take you poolside for a few hours in the afternoon while the kids or grandkids splash around, or you're stuck waiting for a baseball practice or a softball game to get over. So what's on your summer reading list? How about picking up an international best-seller?

The Bible can be a daunting read if you attempt it from cover to cover, but perhaps a few small sections could be your summer reading goal. Our Epistle readings will come from Paul's Letter to the Ephesians during the second half of July and all of August, while our Gospel (and sermon) texts will continue from the first six chapters of Mark during July, switch to the sixth chapter of John during August, then return to Mark's chapters 7-13 until Advent begins in December. The entire book of Ephesians is only six chapters, and the gospel selections only cover a couple chapters before the end of the summer, so don't be intimidated. There are no shortage of accessible Bible versions and sizes available, so think about tucking one into your beach bag or keeping it with your folding chair—you can even get it on your smart phone or tablet if carrying one more thing is a challenge!

Like many of you, my family and I will be enjoying a bit of vacation time on both ends of July: first visiting Ellen's family in Oshkosh, then taking a multi-generational trip to the North Shore later in the month with my parents and my sister's family. It's been many years since the four of us vacationed together, and by this time it will include spouses, two teenagers, a toddler, and an infant! We all love to be near Lake Superior, and will surely be ready for its refreshing natural air conditioning by mid-summer.

On a serious note, please hold all of our Minnesota National Guard in your prayers during this season of increased training. Safety is of course a primary concern with so many machines and weapons being employed, but much like our larger society we in military (and the MN NG in particular) also continue to battle the scourge of suicide. I gave a couple suicide awareness and resource briefs during my June drill, since the national news was focused (albeit temporarily) on recent celebrity deaths, and I continue to pray that our Soldiers can find timely and healthy alternatives to such a permanent decision.

On a brighter note, I will be leading a one-day retreat for single Soldiers during our August drill entitled "How Not to Fall for a Jerk," so pray that it is effective in helping our Soldiers find and nurture healthy relationships. In my current Army Chaplain assignment, I have the luxury of splitting up part of my Annual Training days instead of being away for an entire two-week period. This means I'll be observing and rating my two subordinate chaplains during quick two-day stints with their units at Camp Ripley during July and August, but don't have drill with my own unit this July.

Whether it's summer business as usual in Fairmont or you're taking advantage of some time at the cabin or campground, I pray that Christ remains a clear focus in your life. If you're on a vacation and too far away to join us for worship this summer, please seek out a church in that area and see what their services are like. Let me or one of our Worship Board members know what you find—you never know where new and exciting ideas for our congregation may come from!

Whatever this season finds you doing, please be safe. The "dog days" of summer will all too soon be upon us, so just remember those cool and overly-rainy days of late June!

Blessings and Peace be upon you,

Rev. Cory Germain

July Blessing Box – Kinship of Martin County

For the month of July, we will be focusing our attention on Kinship of Martin County.

The mission of Kinship of Martin County is: To improve lives by establishing quality relationships between individuals and caring volunteers for the purpose of promoting stability, support, friendship, and healthy community through mentoring.

There are so many young people in our county that need our help; that need caring, loving people in their lives. In July you have the chance to help these young people by donating to the blessing box offering. All money collected will go to an emergency fund at Kinship. This fund is used when life throws these families curves they just can't handle. This fund gives them the little bit of help they sometimes need to keep their family together. This is our chance to help make a difference in their young lives.

As you go through the month, pray for these families and consider sharing your many blessings with them.

First Congregational UCC—Fairmont has again joined forces with other area churches and organizations to help fight hunger this summer. The group formed last year and handed out over 3600 sandwiches in Fairmont last summer. We are expanding the program this year with additional sandwich stops at several locations throughout the city. Several churches will serve as sandwich stops during their office hours, expanding the times sandwiches are available. Look for the Summer Hunger logo to identify sandwich stops.

Sandwich handouts will continue at Veteran's Park and the apartments on Johnson Street on Tuesday and Thursday noon. Our Mission Board has committed to making sandwiches and handing them out for the month of July. A sandwich build will be held Sunday, July 8, 7 pm, following the evening church service. We will need volunteers to hand out sandwiches every Tuesday and Thursday during July from 12:15—12:45 pm. Please sign up on the sheet on the table in the back of the church, let a mission board member know, sign up on-line at https://www.signupgenius.com/go/4090F4CADAB29A1FD0-summer, or contact Kay Campe 507-236-9097 kcampe@riw2000.com.

RUTH ANN KAKELDY JONES INTERVIEW

Ruth Ann Jones, daughter of Otto "Mike" and Ruth Kakeldy is a third generation member of First Congregational. Her maternal grandparents, the Bornholdts, were early members and like her mother, Ruth, Ruth Ann was "born and bred" in this church. She and her husband, George, are proud that their son Tim is a fourth generation member. Her aunt, Mabel Benson, was also a long time member.

She was confirmed in 1951 by the Reverend Everett Manes, and was married and Tim baptized by Pastor Manes. She recalls It is members like Ruth Ann and George teaching Sunday School together with Aileen Stougaard when their children were young. Ruth Ann has been very active in women's association work, in worship committee, and with many other activities throughout the years. It is known that if there is a job to be done, that Ruth Ann will step up!

Asked what feels special about our church, she is quick to say that she loves the music, especially at Christmas. It is reasonable to expect that her favorite hymns are "Silent Night" and "O Holy Night", along with "How Great Thou Art". With the support of members at the time of her parents' death and serving often for funeral luncheons, she feels that special time of service is very important and meaningful for her and others.

Recognizing the need for finding and encouraging new members seems to be a significant need for the Joneses. Ruth Ann smiled as she said, "We've made it through some tough times, and we're still here. We stayed together and survived turmoil and we're good."

and their families before them who have shared their faith, and weathered storms that continue to give First Congregational (UCC) the strength and commitment to share in word and deed God's calling for us.

We are truly grateful for the heritage Ruth Ann and her family share with us.

As we celebrate our 150 years, it seems a good idea to talk with some of our members who were raised in the church, were confirmed here, and remain active members. We are blessed to hear that history, and to celebrate the heritage of three and four generations of devoted members.

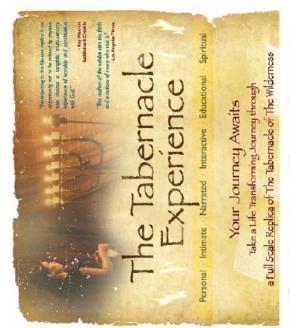

Attention Adventurers!

The Adventure Group needs you to join us for an August wilderness backpacking trip to Badlands National Park in South Dakota and Cloud Peak Wilderness in eastern Wyoming.

This five day, four night adventure to God's country is open to anyone 12 and older who is willing to sleep on the ground (and substitute a clear mountain lake for a shower!) We will leave no earlier than August 1st and return no later than August 8th, with the group deciding the exact dates. No experience necessary and all equipment provided. $50 fee. Does backpacking, trout fishing, magnificent scenery, camp cooking, and learning new outdoor skills interest you? Join us and bring a friend!

Look for more information at the church or contact Jon Neitzel 236-3317 or Eric Johnson 236-1456.
