About the Concert on the Hill:

Our goal is to draw more than 4,600 in attendance to this year's concert. This is the 14th year of providing big name entertainment for the residents of Anderson County and surrounding areas to enjoy.

We reserve the right to determine the number of food vendors inside the Cornstock Concert on the Hill.

Vendor Requirements:

- Concert on the Hill food vendors are required to follow all food and safety requirements as established by the Kansas Department of Health and Environment.
- All food vendor workers are required to wear festival food vendor wristbands during concert and are required for entry into the area.
- Vendor workers are not allowed to solicit or sell product outside of the vendor booth area. Roaming soliciting inside the concert area will not be permitted.
- Food vendors are to set up prior to 3:00 p.m. Food vendor vehicles will have access to the concert area until 3:00 p.m. and after the concert is over (approximately 10:00 p.m.). Concert gates will open at 3:30 p.m. Two (2) concert access vehicle passes will be provided to vendors and can only be used before and after the concert as specified above. Please check with the ACCF about parking locations near concert area during concert.
- Proof of insurance: Proof of insurance covering your civic, non-profit or for-profit organization is required. Please attach to this application.
- Water is not available directly inside the concert area but can be accessible within the park for vendor's use.
- Trash receptacles will be provided. You must leave the area as clean as you found it.
- Not alcoholic beverages are allowed in the vendor area.
- You must have adult supervision in instances where children who work your vendor booth are under the age of 18 years.
- Sales Tax: Food vendors are required by Kansas law to charge and remit sales tax, currently 8.50%. We can provide you with temporary festival sales tax certificate upon request. Remittance of sales tax is due to the Kansas Department of Revenue immediately following the festival. It is up to you, not ACCF, to remit sales tax to the Kansas Department of Revenue on your behalf. Per requirement by the Kansas Department of Revenue, by completing this application along with your signature you are showing the following intent: "All federal, state, and local laws governing retail sales tax must be followed. I understand the rules and regulations of this festival and will comply. I realize that failure to comply may result in expulsion from this festival."

Concert on the Hill Vendor Fees:

Concert on the Hill Food Vendor Fee: $300

Food Vendor Deposit (refundable): $100 = Please remit $400.

Upon arrival the day of the event and the food vendor booth is open for business the $100 deposit will be refunded to Contact Person for the food vendor booth. If for any reason a vendor has submitted their Concert on the Hill Food Vendor Application Form, paid the applicable food vendor fee and deposit and does not set up and sell food at the September 22nd event, they will forfeit all fees and deposits paid. In addition, food vendors who back out will forfeit their right to participate as a food vendor at the next year's Anderson County Corn Festival.

Concert on the Hill Food Vendor Application Deadline: May 1, 2018.

Anderson County civic, non-profit organizations or businesses must submit applications by May 1, 2018. Vendors will be contacted after May 5th and announcements will be made via media and the festival website. Out of county vendors can apply after May 5th.

The Anderson County Corn Festival Committee reserves the right to assign space in accordance with other exhibitors/vendors and products currently booked. We will strive to maintain a balanced variety of products and services for the purpose of not overloading the event with similar or like products. The Anderson County Corn Festival Committee reserves the right to accept and/or reject any application as the committee deems necessary to best serve festival attendees.
