

FRIENDS OF SAN PEDRO LIBRARY

SPRING 2014 FLYER

MEET EMILY DICKINSON

In celebration of National Poetry Month Friends of San Pedro Library will present An Afternoon with Emily Dickinson Saturday, April 26, 2:00 p.m. in the library's Community Room. The program will feature The Belle of Amherst, starring Julie Harris, whose portrayal of the poet became her signature role. A reading and discussion of Ms. Dickinson's poetry will follow. A special surprise will be the revelation of a San Pedro-Amherst connection.

RESTORED LIBRARY HOURS

Sunday library hours were restored on January 12 with a re-opening celebration featuring presentations by civic leaders, a magic show, balloons, and other festive evidence of a very special occasion.

"There is not such a cradle of democracy upon the Earth as the Free Public Library -- this republic of letters, where neither rank, office, nor wealth receives the slightest consideration."

--Andrew Carnegie

COME BLOW YOUR HORNS!

The four saxophones of the Noir Quartet from Marymount College will blow Saturday, May 17, 2:00 p.m. at San Pedro Library. Quartet members Lee Raby soprano sax, Matthew Ennis, alto sax, Laura Kramer, tenor sax, and Cameron Domingues, baritone sax, have been together since May 2013. All attended USC's Thornton School of Music and have worked together in various musical venues including chamber ensembles, orchestras, win ensembles, recording sessions, and new music performances.

THANK YOU

Thank you to everyone who attended our showing of G-Dog, especially those of you who made an extra contribution to Homeboy Industries. We were able to give a total donation of $2,000 to Father Gregory Boyle and his Homies.

Dear Friends: In the absence of a full newsletter, members will receive flyers to announce programs and other pertinent information.
