HERITAGE HALL Museum & ARCHIVES

1:00-8:00 p.m. Daily

Free Admission courtesy of Rural Manufacturing

Heritage Hall Museum and Archives has seen many changes in the past year and we are excited to share those changes with you! All of our buildings are open and there is plenty to see, including:

- German-Russian immigration artifacts
- Native American artifacts
- Hutterite pottery, clocks, and an 1823 wedding dress
- A printing press, doctor's office, and general store
- A variety of household furnishings and appliances
- A unique collection of buggies, sleighs, motorcycles, cars and farm machinery
- A 1927 Lincoln-Page biplane
- The NEW Fred Haar Collection
- Outbuildings: a restored school house, churches, and pioneer home
- Stop by the Archives to see displays or browse through books for sale

In addition, watch artisans demonstrate historic, local crafts like basket weaving, spinning, caning, rope making, and tatting.
