To Whom It May Concern,

I have known Tavaro and Shameika Hanna for 14 years. Tavaro is a strong and dedicated Christian, husband, father, and evangelist. Shameika is a strong and dedicated Christian, wife, mother, and teacher. They both share a deep passion for studying God's Word and for spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ especially in their native Bahamas. I have personally seen this passion that led them to sacrifice and move to Memphis, Tennessee for Tavaro to attend the Memphis School of Preaching. Therefore that they would be better equipped to spread the Gospel upon their return to Eight Mile Rock, Grand Bahama.

As Tavaro is concluding his training at the Memphis School of Preaching, Tavaro and Shameika are steadfastly preparing for their domestic missionary efforts. It has been my privilege to be able to support them in this evangelist endeavour, and I strongly encourage you or your congregation to support them in this soul-winning labour of love.

Yours sincerely,

Caleb Fairchild
