

The White Horse at Quidhampton

The White Horse at Quidhampton is a traditional village pub serving a menu of traditional pub favourites.

We use locally sourced produce where possible and we never call anything homemade, unless it really is. You are very welcome to ask if you would like information about how our dishes are prepared or where they come from. Please do let us know if you have food allergies or intolerances, so we can advise suitable meal choices.

The White Horse is a pub, not a restaurant. We try to offer table service wherever possible, but respectfully ask that orders for food and drink be placed at the bar.

We hope that you enjoy your visit and the time you spend here with us.

Nick, Zoe & the team.
