NEEDS OF THE CHURCH IN CANADA - SEPTEMBER 25th

Every year, the Bishops of Canada appeal for financial assistance. This collection helps each diocese make its annual contribution to the National Episcopal Conference and to the respective regional episcopal assembly (in the Atlantic, Quebec, Ontario and Western regions). Any additional funds from the collection are at the disposal of the diocese for its own pastoral needs. On the day of the collection, an appropriate petition may be added in the Prayer of the Faithful. The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops is the national assembly of Catholic Bishops. Contributing to this collection is an act of collaboration with the Bishops in their ministry of teaching, sanctifying and pastoral governance.

Let us take a deep dive Into the Sunday Gospel

Under the guidance of Saint Thomas Aquinas and his thorough study of the Church's teachings of the Gospels in his book "The Golden Chain"; we invite you to join us.

Come join us for an hour of study on the upcoming Sunday Gospel as we explore what the Church Fathers and Doctors of the Catholic Church preached and wrote about. We will discover what our Popes had to say about the Gospel and how they used them to guide us in their encyclicals.

Saint Francis de Sales, on the very first page of his classic "Introduction to the Devout Life" stated "... the Holy Spirit disposes and orders in many different ways the devout instructions he gives us by the tongues and pens of his servants. Although the doctrine is always the same, statements of it differ greatly according to the various ways in which their books are composed. I NEITHER CAN NOR WILL, NOR SHOULD I (strength of intention added by Fr. Angus) write in this Introduction anything that has not already been published by our predecessors on the same subject."

Let us enter into the Traditional teachings of the Church. We will begin with the Gospel of October 9th, Luke 17:11-19 the healing of the 10 lepers. What has St. Augustine to say of Gratitude, and Ingratitude. Learn what St. Cyril has to say about this calling for the conversion of Israel. What does the Venerable Bede have to say about false doctrines being like leprosy, and the healing that needs to occur in Israel and ourselves. How does Pope Francis guide us through the witness of Mary to the real healing of this Gospel. We will provide you with access to these readings and more.

Please join us, either live or on Zoom, every week, beginning:

We are going to be busy. Fr. Angus

NATIONAL DAY OF TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION

Each year, September 30 marks the National Day of Truth and Reconciliation. It is a day dedicated to acknowledging the tragic history and legacy of residential schools, its victims and survivors. Last July, Pope Francis began his penitential pilgrimage to Canada. The central objective of this apostolic journey was reconciliation and healing between the Catholic Church and the Aboriginal peoples of Canada. It was a first step on the road to healing.

It will take a long time to rebuild trust, but the Pope has given us a message of hope (Honourable Graydon Nicholas, member of the Maliseet First Nation and former Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick, p.13, Columbia Magazine, C of C, September 2022).

As we begin this journey with our Aboriginal brothers and sisters, let us pray that the Virgin Mary, Saint Anne and Saint Kateri Tekakwitha will intercede for us on this journey of healing and give us the courage to persevere. Diocesan Justice and Solidarity Team, Archdiocese of Moncton

Exploring our Faith

Pearls of Wisdom

Jesus spoke in parables with amazing insights into human behaviour; many of them so convincing that they have become clichés of our language. One short parable was about a merchant who collected pearls and finally found the perfect one. He was so invested in his search that he sold everything else he had in order to buy it. When a young rich man asked Jesus for his advice Jesus drew on his own parable and suggested the young man sell all he had in order to obtain what he wanted most. But Jesus gave the parable a twist and told him to sell all he had and give to the poor and "come follow me."

I once heard a "fire and brimstone" preacher who believed in the literal interpretation of the Bible say about the parable of the rich man and the eye of the needle that Jesus was just exaggerating. No literal interpretation there. Of course all parables require personal interpretation. That is the point of a parable.

Today's first reading is set at the time of Amos and the two kingdoms of Israel and Judah. Periods of peace were interrupted by periods of war among the various peoples in the surrounding lands. Between wars there were various levels of economic prosperity. It is always so, even now. When Jesus said to Judas "The poor you will always have with you" he could have said "as well as the rich". What is really hard to process is the "correct" Christian way to relate to material ownership and how to evaluate what is important in life.

I had a friend who quite tragically but slowly became such a hoarder surrounded by so much stuff that eventually there was no longer any room left for people to get close to her. She died alone. I have also read and tried to put into practice Marie Kondo's book "the life changing magic of tidying up" (no caps in the title). It was actually quite helpful but not a total solution to the question of what attitude to take towards personal prosperity.

"Blessed are the poor in spirit". We try to understand this but we know that the poor are not necessarily happy. Why else would we be asked to give to them? In my own personal search for "pearls of wisdom" I recently found one I am trying out and will share with you. In Maeve Binchy's quite humorous little self-help manual "Aches and Pains" there is a section called "How to Be Hilarious About Making a Will". In it she recommends we make a will every year. She started at age 21. List what you own and value and decide who you want to bequeath it to, not if but when you die.

I am trying it out.

Listen to the Voice of the... North! "The greatest burden of climate change is falling on people in the Far North and global South—those who have contributed least to the problem. Indigenous voices in the church remind us that we are called upon to look after Creator's gifts and to pass along these gifts to our children." What can we do?
