

Community Partners hosts 18th Annual Conference “Caring in all Directions”

Taylor Holm, MSW, LGSW
Community Partners, Executive Director

On November 15th, Community Partners welcomed over 90 participants to their 18th Annual Conference “Caring in all Directions” at Superior Shores Resort in Two Harbors, MN in honor of National Family Caregiver Month in November. Participants enjoyed a luncheon, two keynote speakers, dessert, and exhibitors.

“In this day and age, caring for others can feel like it is happening all at once and in many directions” said Taylor Holm, Executive Director of Community Partners. “People in our community are caring for their parents, children, spouses, family members, or friends, while also trying to care for themselves - we wanted to create an educational and interactive experience for participants focused around caregiving and aging in our area.”

Keynote speakers were Rev. Dr. Anna Madsen, owner of OMG Center for Theological Conversation in Two Harbors, and Sean Kershaw, Executive Director of Citizen's League in St. Paul. They presented, discussed, and dove deeper into personal caregiving experiences, and the future of aging and caregiving in Minnesota.

16 exhibitors shared information about senior services with participants. Lake View Hospital, Ecumen Scenic Shores, Barross Cottages I & II, Essentia Health, LSSD #381 Community Education, Thrivent Financial Greg Hanson, Full Circle Senior Living, Barross Manor, Two Harbors Federal Credit Union, Carefree Living Silver Bay, and Home Instead Senior Care all sponsored the event. Superior Shores donated a portion of the expenses.

“We continue to see our annual conference as a place for service providers, volunteers, participants, and community members to connect, learn, and discuss topics related to aging - including the future of aging in Lake County.” said Holm. “We are excited to see this conference continue to grow in the coming years.”

You can listen to recordings from this event on the Two Harbors Community Radio KTWH 99.5 FM on the first two Mondays in December at 1 pm. For more information about resources shared at the conference, or if you are interested in volunteering with the organization, contact Community Partners at 218-834-8024.
