A Word to the Fore: Time to Fly

"Jump off the cliff and build your wings on the way down."

-Ray Bradbury

Hope 2019 has been treating you right!

This year has been a hectic one for us thus far, and it's about to get exponentially more so: We gave notice at the end of December that we'll be leaving our jobs at the end of May, and are about to enter our final two months of preparations to move back home to the United States in June. After 19 years of life in Japan, including 17 years at that job, and 12 years in this house, there's still so much that needs to get done!

At this point, we don't yet know whether it will be possible to shoehorn doing the Summer issue of the Re-View into our remaining time here. But once we move back home, when exactly we'll be able to get back online with a good desktop machine to produce another issue of the Re-View also isn't yet known. So if it's possible at all to do the Summer issue before we move, we certainly want to! Otherwise, we'll have to ask for your understanding and the Re-View will go on hiatus, hopefully to resume with the Autumn issue. (VCMEC Online World Championships results during that time will be posted in the files section of the VCMEC Facebook page.)

In the meantime, though, there's a lot to enjoy here in the Spring issue! Mondo thanks to Lois Bennington, our judge for the second leg of the 2018-19 VCMEC Online World Championship series! Lois also named a Judge's Choice in each division, with comments. It's a great idea and makes for interesting reading, and we'll ask future judges to do the same!

This leg of the series also saw the crowning of only the third-ever VCMEC Triple Crown winner, sweeping the overall Grand Championships in his division's Breed, Color, and Workmanship shows. Who is it? Read on, the answer awaits!

We also always love reading what folks have to say about their champions in the Victory Lap. Be sure to check it out!

In a similar vein, once we're back home, we're looking forward to finishing up RemakeRoundup.com, our reference-website-to-be, where you can share details about your vintage customs and read about others.

Looking ahead to 2020, our target year for the grand opening of the VCMEC Hobby House and Museum, we plan to hold an extra-special Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress live show! The past two editions were held the first weekend of May because that coincided with Japan's Golden Week series of holidays, allowing enough time for a trip across the world (and back!) to hold the show. We won't have that schedule constraint in 2020, so will be taking a look at the calendar to see what might be better. If you have any suggestions or preferences, please let us know!

It's hard to know how to sign off here. Will the next issue be the last from this desk in this little rooftop room atop a long-closed fish store in Tatebayashi City, Gunma Prefecture, Japan? Or will time have run out, and we'll be writing from new surroundings in beautiful Battle Creek, Michigan? We'll find out soon enough...! Wherever--and whenever--you are and we'll be, thanks for reading, and we'll hope to be back soon!

-Sparky C.

VCMEC Welcomes Silver Shamrock

We were already great fans of Triple Mountain Model Horses of Maine (www.triplemountain.com), with its top-notch customer service and ever-evolving array of stock, including both original finish and customized model horses. (In fact, this issue's cover horse, *Nabour, was purchased there a few years ago!) But Eleda Towle of Triple Mountain recently found a way to delight us even further, donating '80s sweetie Silver Shamrock, one of artist Lindy Pinkham's earliest creations, for the future VCMEC Museum!

Eleda wrote, "Silver Shamrock was the first custom I ever bought, and is a good example of artists trying to figure out how to make dapple greys in the '80s. He may not be her prettiest work, but back in the day he was something."

"I'm really happy to help you represent Lindy Pinkham there. She's now known worldwide for her etching skills, but back in the day, she made customs that showed all over. She still works under the name Sunny Shamrock Farm out of Camden, Maine, Lindy's participation in the hobby spans decades, and includes customizer, show exhibitor, show-holder (Maine Live Show was "the" event up here for many years), judging, Breyer dealer, Breyer rep, tack-maker, Breyerfest clinician, and etcher. And the crazy thing is: She's really good at all of them! A pair of her etched Stablemates is currently pulling a circus wagon in our exhibit at Skyline Farm Museum, and her etched Trads sell for around $500 quite often.

"Back in the '90s she terrorized Fantasy classes around the region with a custom she called Nightmare. It had two heads, red eyes, and actual pheasant wings. Unforgettable.

"She's also a great person with a big heart, helping new folks in the hobby and supporting charities. She has donated groups of models to our charity account for the regional animal shelter worth almost a thousand dollars!"

Thanks so much to Eleda and Triple Mountain for donating Silver Shamrock to represent Lindy Pinkham in the VCMEC Museum!

Judge's Choice!

Our Leg 2 judge, Lois Bennington, selected a horse in each division to recognize with a Judge's Choice title. What a great idea, and we're sorry we didn't think of it ourselves! We'll encourage judges of future legs to do it if they'd like. In the meantime, here are Lois' special choices!

1960s/'70s DIVISION:

SAGE WIND (CH)

Roan blanket Appaloosa stallion, Breyer Terrang repainted by Nancy Strowger in 1978

Lois writes, "I would love to see this horse in person. He is not your typical Appaloosa build but I fell for him because of the delicate roaning and a beautiful, kind face that only Nancy Strowger could accomplish. He is dated 1978 but there is no doubt that he could still show successfully in 2019, more than 40 years later."

1980s DIVISION:

SPARROWOOD BEAUTY (SSu)

Bay sabino Clydesdale mare, Breyer Clydesdale Mare CM by owner Sue Sudekum in 1984

Lois writes, "All I want to do with this mare is stroke her silky mane! LOL! She is typical of many of the custom Clydesdale mares of this era but I love her bay coloring and the use of white on her face. Lovely model!"

1990s DIVISION:

WYLIE (JG)

Blue roan blanket Appaloosa Mule gelding, Breyer Adios believed to be CM by Eighmeys in the 1990s)

Lois writes, "I have a new respect for flocked models after judging this Vintage show. I would love to know how they were flocked. Wylie is a lovely color, a wonderful Adios with custom mule ears. If he were a real mule, I would love to meet him."

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Let's start with only the third-ever "Triple Crown" hero in the VCMEC Online World Championship series, the Overall Champion in all three of his divisions in this leg!

*THE RAISULI

Rose grey Arabian stallion, CM by Beth Peart (remake) and Nancy Strowger (repaint and thread mane/tail) in 1977

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed, Color, and Workmanship

Colleen Headley writes, "Inspired by Sean Connery's character in 'The Wind and The Lion,' *The Raisuli is the result of a Beth Peart remake and a Nancy Strowger repaint/hair collaboration. His longtime owner, Ava Maureen Durbin, showed him in many open photo shows and in her club MARA. I can say also that she had him at a live show in Phoenix where he became a TV celebrity when a crew came to cover the event. When Ava passed in 2017, Nancy Strowger made the choice to put him in my hands as part of Ava's estate and I have him gratefully, always remembering Ava whom I miss very much."

WICKENDEN OSPREY

Grey Welsh Sec. B stallion, CM by Cheryl Abelson and Cindy Derreseau in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton wrote about this iconic

"foxy grandpa" in the Winter 2017 issue's Victory Lap--check it out!

TADEUSZ

Grulla Oldenburg/Quarter Horse-cross stallion, CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Color

See last issue's Victory Lap for Ardith Carlton's thoughts on this evergreen guy!

BIRCHWOOD GEISHA BOY

Blood bay Hackney Horse gelding, CM by Beth Peart in 1977

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

For his fourth Victory Lap (others were in the Autumn 2016, Winter 2017, and Spring '17 issues), Beth Peart writes, "Well now, the Boy gets a nod again. :-). He's been with me since 1977, and even though I sold almost all my other vintage models, I kept him. He wasn't in great shape when I found him in a cardboard box in my basement after having lain there for 30 years. He was broken off his base (that, luckily, was the worst of the damage) and had survived well in terms of filler lifting, unlike many of my other vintage models, so YAY! I got him standing again and dusted him off and VOILA! He has had a new life since 2016. He has even live- show placed in a non-vintage show in 2018. I'm so happy he's been recognized again. Thank you! :-)"

MON NAFA RANI

Grey Arabian mare, CM by Sarah Minkiewicz in the late 1980s

1980s Overall Champion Breed and Workmanship

You'll want to see what Cheryl Ridge wrote about her breathtaking mare in the Autumn 2017 and Spring 2018 issues' Victory Laps!

FLYING DUTCHMAN

Chestnut tobiano Spotted Trakehner stallion, CM by Carol Williams in 1987

1980s Overall Champion Color

Juliane Garstka of Germany writes, "As you know, I'm a big fan of Carol Williams and especially of her vintage customs.

"I saw Flying Dutchman first when I made my first experiences with surfing the Internet in the late nineties. In the early millennium years you still could have the luck to find such horses offered for sale or in auction, and one day Dutchman was offered.

"Overseas auctions for us mostly ended about 4 a.m., so my friend Regine and me got up that early, had a coffee and phoned each other, while trying to catch the horse in the auction. We were lucky several times, and one of these stories is about Dutchman! I think we caught all our holy grails like that, LOL!"

QUICK COMET

Bay Standardbred mare, CM by Julie Froelich in 1983

1980s Overall Res. Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "This is the model that brought me into the hobby, thanks to the kindness of Julie Froelich! Details are in the Winter '17 and Spring '18 issues, but I'm tickled to get to show you the real Quick Comet in action this time, on top at Detroit's Wolverine Raceway in '78 (she's the 4) for owner/driver/trainer Glen Quick. Thanks to Don Daniels for the photo!"

MOONCRAFTER

Chesnut rabicano Arabian stallion, CM by Fara Shimbo in the 1980s

1980s Overall Res. Champion Color

Corky Visminas writes, "I started showing model horses in 1985, and even then, work by Fara Shimbo had legendary status and was spoken of in reverent tones. They were pretty rare, and are even more so now--and in fact I never even saw a Fara Shimbo remake in person until I acquired the lovely Mooncrafter. Done on one of my favorite molds, the Sham (don't hate me), and in a rabicano-licious flaxen chestnut color, he was a must-have the moment I saw him. I'm thrilled that he's done so well!"

BLOODBATH HIGHWAY

Dun overo Paint/Mustang-cross gelding, CM by Carol Williams 1987

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Adding to memories shared in the Winter 2017 and Spring 2018 issues' Victory Laps, Corky Visminas writes, "Professional wrestlers have theme songs, so why not a bucking bronco? That was my thought when I bestowed the name Bloodbath Highway on this Carol Williams remake.

"'Bloodbath Highway,' the song, is from the 1983 Japanese animated film epic 'Crusher Joe,' and was performed by the group Aragorn. The lyrics are entirely in English, which may be difficult to guess from actually listening to it (Aragorn were hilariously unskilled with the language). Despite its grim title, the song is bouncy and even upbeat, with a jumpy rhythm that would match up perfectly with the sight of a bronco leaping and sunfishing his way across an arena while he tries to dislodge a hapless cowboy."

DELOYER STARBLAZER

Bay Clydesdale stallion, CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1992

1990s Overall Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "Once a Breyer Clyde Mare, this hefty guy was heavy on my mind for years, after I'd parted with him in a pinch. New owner Cristine Holt promised to let me know if she ever decided to sell, though--and her word was (and is!) good as gold! I'm so grateful that he's back home, and so happy he's done well!!"

TC

Chestnut Arabian gelding, CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1995

1990s Overall Champion Color

Cheryl Monroe writes, "TC is a portrait model of a real Arabian gelding that belonged originally to Lisa Shepard. She also created the model of him, and when I brought the real TC to my home for retirement, Lisa gave me his portrait model too. The model TC really captured the real TC in looks and overall attitude. His tail is on a moveable wire base so it can change position. Lisa did a fantastic job creating him from a PAM! The real TC has long since passed away, and the model TC enjoys lounging around with my other real horse portrait models. Lisa would be thrilled that he won something! I didn't campaign him very much, mostly just enjoy him with his buds."

SHIRAMBA KAMUI

Wild bay Morab gelding, CM by Sarah Minkiewicz (-Breunig) 1997

1990s Overall Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "After 20 years of longing for a remake by Sarah Minkiewicz, the planets finally came into alignment, and Barb Ness sold me this astonishing fellow who'd started as a Hagen-Renaker large Zara! He came to Japan bedded in foam rubber. I shot this photo, put him back in his foam-rubber-filled box for just a bit to figure out the best place to display him--and then Japan's monster 9.1 quake hit! He rode it out safely, and is happy staying in that cushy 'box stall' until we can get back home to the U.S."

SEONEE ELEGY

Dove grulla Appaloosa mare, CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1990

1990s Overall Res. Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "Fell in love with this gal on one of Lisa's saleslists! 'Ellie' brought me a ton of thrills at live shows in the '90s. One of the biggest was at BreyerFest Live 1993 at the Kentucky Horse Park, where she met up with RM The Roan Ranger, Lisa Ferris' awesome App by Julie Froelich. Ellie just could not get past him, and I thought her day was over...but they wound up one-two of the entire division, with Ellie the CM Halter Reserve Grand Champion!"

RED REBEL

1990s Overall Res. Champion Color

Sue Sudekum wrote about this handsome roan in the Autumn 2016 issue's Victory Lap. Be sure to take a look!

GOSSAMER WINGS

Grey Arabian mare, CM by Sarah Minkiewicz (-Breunig) in 1993

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Kirsten Wellman writes, "How exciting! Besides my 10+ year series of near misses buying Gossamer Wings [see the Autumn '16, Winter '17, and Autumn '17 issues], I don't have much to add, alas. But I did take her to Sarah Mink's A Good Vintage show at BreyerWest in March 2017. She won Champ 1990s, Overall Champ, and Sarah's husband choose her for the Ham's Favorite award. Smart man, haha!"
