Nikki Forman, CRPTO President

- Nikki discussed new things on the agenda.
- This Friday is jersey day (February 5th).
- A flyer will be going home to order yearbooks. There will be NO extra yearbooks this year. If you would like a yearbook it needs to be purchased by February 26th. They are $40
- Grace Week will be all next week (Monday-Friday). Tickets will be sold this week for $5

Mr. Eyerman - CRS Principal

- Mr. Eyerman thanked all the families and PTO for their support and for the teachers luncheon and gifts.
- All Students are currently on campus. Copper Ridge is still getting Covid cases according to the Covid Dashboard.
- Please continue to keep your children home if they exhibit any symptoms.
- Staff on campus have been receiving their vaccines
- If Copper Ridge meets a certain number of covid cases he will meet with the Superintendent to see if school would need to temporarily shutdown.
- If a shutdown were to happen and classes went virtual it would be for approximately 10 days to slow the spread.
- Thank you to everyone for their support and continuing to isolate after exposure or travel
- Next Year Staffing Update:
 - Mr. Eyerman and Ms. Scharff are planning to come back.
 - They are hiring more support staff
 - There will be an additional 4th grade teacher being added for next year.
 - Hopefully Pre-K will be back on campus. Get the word out
 - As of now, most teachers will be staying next year
- All Classes have cameras installed to stream if your child needs to be quarantined. This is ONLY for families that need to quarantine.
- Enrollment has started for next year and private tours are being held on campus.

Stephanie Halvorson – Book Fair

- Book fair update:
 - Our online book fair in the fall raised $650
 - The librarian ordered a ton of new books for the library with the funds. Thank you to everyone who participated!
- The book fair is not scheduled for next fall as of now.

Robyn Wallace – VP of Volunteers Middle School

- No uniform day will be this Friday (February 5th)

- Tickets are being sold on the playground and in the cafeteria for $5
- It is a football theme – you do not need to wear a jersey, you can have a no uniform day as well.
- There will be a raffle with the no uniform day tickets – students can put their name in the bucket of the team they think will win the Superbowl and the winner will get a $50 amazon gift card.

Meredith Abramson - VP of Fundraising

- There will be no school carnival this year.
- There will be a fun parent event on April 16th.
 - It will be a safe outdoor event with food trucks on the Windgate Ranch Lawn.
 - People need to register for the event but do not need to purchase tickets.
 - A signup genius will be going out with two time slots
- Auction Items will be displayed and families can bid online with GiveSmart
- There will be teacher experiences and parking spots available for bidding

Amy Floyd – VP of Volunteers Elementary

- All Room Moms should have set 20% of their class room funds aside for gift basket for the parent event April 16th
- Instead of baskets this year, all grade levels will be doing one big auction item (Ideas are xbox, Hoverboards, bikes, electric scooters).
- Items should be in by March 20th.
- People who are unable to attend the event are able to bid from home.

Nikki Forman – CRPTO President

- Please like us on Facebook and Instagram! There is a lot of information that is posted.
- Thank you to Christine Deaton for her monthly newsletter!
- Another great way to get school information is through Remind. It sends texts to give updates on what is happening.
 - Text @CRPTO2020 to: 81010
- A drive-thru art fair is being discussed. The potential date of the art fair is March 31st – more information will be coming.
