

Knox, DeLima

DeLima Rose Knox, 90, of Manhattan, Kansas, died Saturday, Dec. 7, 2002, at St. Joseph Senior Community in Manhattan. She was born May 21, 1912 in Brimley, daughter of the late John J. and Elise (St. Louis) Skippen. She was united in marriage to Wallace Knox on May 13, 1939 in Marquette. He preceded her in death in 1957. Mrs. Knox worked for Robertsons Laundry and for a bakery prior to being housemother and cook for Farmhouse Fraternity at Michigan State University in East Lansing for 21 years. She had also been the cook for a summer music camp in Interlochen for many years. She had lived with her daughter's family in Brookings, S.D. for four years and then moved to Manhattan, Kansas on Jan. 1, 1981. Mrs. Knox was a member of St. Thomas More Catholic Church, Dominican Associate, Altar Society, 3rd Age Group, and her faith was very important to her. She loved to crochet and make cakes for her family's special occasions. Surviving are her son-in-law, Gerry L. Kuhl of Manhattan, Kansas; four granddaughters, Amanda M. Kuhl, Bethany L. Kuhl-Croucher, Amy D. Kuhl-Roberts and Emily A. Kuhl, all of Manhattan, Kansas; two sisters, Madeline Eastman of Marysville, Calif., Marie McKenzie of Muskegon and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by one daughter, Lisa Marie Kuhl on July 23, 1999; eight brothers and sisters, Leonard Skippen, Elsie Hammond, Margaret Skippen, Louise Butler, Agnes Skippen, Josephine Skippen, Theresa Peplinski and John Skippen. The mass of Christian burial will take place at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Dec. 14, 2002, at Holy Family Catholic Church in Sebewaing. Fr. George Serour will officiate with burial in the church cemetery. A Scripture Service will be conducted at 8 p.m. on Friday evening at the Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home in Sebewaing. Visitation will be from 7 to 9 p.m. on Friday at the funeral home. Memorials may be made to Alzheimer's Association or Farmhouse Fraternity.
