

Hi Andy,

I wanted to let you know that I heard back from Drexel and was accepted! After our session together at Barnes and Noble, I spent a lot of time going over all the questions we talked about and all your suggestions. I was MUCH MUCH better prepared after this. I'm not sure if I would have had the same result without your help, and I have been telling everyone I know who's applying to PA school about you. I still haven't heard back from any of the other 9 schools about interviews, but if I get any invites at attractive schools, I'll probably attend those interviews as well. If you like, I'm still happy to tell you about specific questions I was asked at Drexel.

Thank you,

Marc R.

Hi Mr. Rodican,

I should start off by thanking you for coaching my interview. I am beyond excited to tell you I got in! Your advice of bringing up the community service and events they post on Facebook paid off immensely. Thank you again for helping me achieve the one of if not the biggest goal of my life.

Andy,

I just want to make you aware that I got accepted to EVMS!! Thank you so much for taking the time to meet with me before my interview. I feel like the investment of my time and money was so worthwhile just so that I could feel like I've done everything I could possibly do to be prepared. Thanks again!!

Hi Andy,

I write you with awesome news...This afternoon, I received a letter of acceptance from them (York PA Program.) I cannot thank you enough for being my mentor and reading and replying to my emails. Like I said before, not having someone who is in healthcare in my family seemed detrimental during this process, but having someone like you in my corner has really shaped my perspective. There are no words; I am completely elated and ready to start and determined to succeed. I know I will be a great PA and to know that I now have that opportunity makes me so grateful. I am appreciative for all of your time and your energy. I can truly never thank you for your advice, replies, and mentorship. I hope we can keep in touch during the next few exciting months and years of my life. Thank you thank you thank you.

Good Morning Mr. Rodican,

My name is Jonathan M., and I currently live in Toledo, OH. I wanted to write you this morning to thank you for all of your help, advice, and information that you unknowingly provided me during my endeavors to be accepted into a PA program this year. This time last year, I was sitting in failure. I had worked very hard to get into the University of Toledo PA program, but found myself rejected, my hopes crushed. Yet, I was determined not to give up! Knowing that I would need some help to try again this year, I purchased your "Ultimate Guide to Getting into Physician Assistant School" book. It was well written, and the chapter on producing goals and goal sheets helped me immensely, as well as the rest of the content. I produced a list of my "Top 25 Goals" as you advised, and took action on them. I did everything from researching the AAPA, to investigating other programs in the region, to shadowing PAs, as well as using your book to help me prepare my personal statement. All these efforts were followed by profound success. Of the three schools that I applied to (The University of Toledo, Wayne State University, and Eastern Michigan University), I was offered interviews to two, and declined completely by the third. But that was ok, two out of three isn't bad. I also borrowed your PA School Interviewing Guide from my local library to help me prepare, which was also a great help (the ethical question about the wife with newly diagnosed AIDS came up in our group interview, and I was the only one who answered as your book directs!) I'm also very happy to report that I was admitted to both schools, and that I will be attending The University of Toledo program beginning in August of this year. I wanted to give you my utmost thanks and regards, and wanted to let you know that I will be passing on the book to a friend and former roommate of mine who will be applying to programs in a few weeks, and that I will be recommending your books to those I meet who plan to become PAs in the future.

*Again, thank you so much for all of your assistance and guidance.
Your future colleague,*

Jonathan M., soon-to-be PA-S

This is Mei. I was accepted by Franklin Pierce University this morning. Thank you for the mock interview and your great assistance. After the mock interview, I improved my self-confidence and was well prepared for the interview. All of the questions was covered by the mock interview. Thank you for your time and your inspiration!

Have a great weekend!

Best,

Hi Andy!

I wanted to let you know I was accepted at Touro College that you helped me prepare for!! I cannot thank you enough for your guidance and interview tips. I noticed one key thing that I hadn't done in previous interviews that I needed to do this last time around...I wasn't being open enough about who I was. That age old question of tell me about yourself; I tend not to be very open with people I am unfamiliar with. I realized that this was probably my biggest interview weakness. I made sure to really give the interviews at this last round, a brief but well- rounded picture of who I was as an individual, not just as a student.

I can't thank you enough! I'm so glad I reached out to you and got your advice. It made all the difference!!

Best regards,

Falon

Hi Andrew!

Sorry it has taken me awhile to get back to you regarding my interview. The interview went really well; it was MMI style - 4 rooms with 6 minutes in each room. The question was asked upon entering the room (no notecards outside with question before entering). Each room had a faculty member and current PA student as the interviewers. All 4 rooms were behavioral style questions. I got an email back two days after my interview offering me acceptance to the PA program!! I'm ecstatic. Thank you for all your help, you prepared me very well!

Best,

Hi Mr. Andrew Rodican:

I have great news. I recently got accepted into 2 PA schools. Thank you for all your help! I have one more interview coming in May in California, too. I hope you are doing well. Once again, thank you!

With Appreciation,

Hi Mr Rodican,

I received two interviews! One of the interviews I received was to my #1 Drexel University, I still can't believe it! The other school was Le Moyne College which was my #2! I really want to thank you for making my personal statement shine :) My interviews are January 9th and 14th. I would really like to use your coaching services because I know getting into PA school the first time up is rare but still not unreachable. I know you have probably tons of candidates but I just wanted to reach out and say THANK YOU!

Respectfully,

Sherryann

Hi Mr. Rodican,

I am re-sending this mail because I am not sure whether the earlier mail went through or not. I had mock interview with you back in October. Though at that time I did not prepare for the interview, your feedback and your books really helped me. I am very excited to let you know that I have been accepted to my no. 1 choice of PA school at Eastern Michigan University. I could not achieve my goal without your advice.

Thank you so much for such a big help.

Regards,

Afsheen M.

Hi Mr. Rodican,

I got an acceptance call from USC!! I really believe that the practice session the night before helped a lot with my interview. It gave me the confidence I needed and all of your tips helped tremendously. Thank you so much for all your help!

Sincerely,

Michelle Kreidt

Andy,

I just wanted to let you know I got accepted into the Wichita State University PA program! This year had over 500 more applicants than it did last year (about 1500 total) and I got accepted into 1 of the 48 seats!!! :)))) Last year, I didn't even get wait listed.

Thank you soooo much for the mock interview! I felt that really helped my confidence level and I had a better idea of what they were looking for and I did so much better in the interview than last year.

Thank you again!

Sincerely,

Savannah Lowry

Hello Andy,

I just wanted to shoot you an email to let you know that I was accepted into Central Michigan Universities PA program. Thank you for taking the time to meet with me and offer support throughout this process.

Thanks again,

Hi Andy!

I had an absolutely fabulous interview today. I'm sure after our time together you couldn't imagine it, but it was flawless. I was so relaxed and felt like I was talking to old friends. We laughed a lot, not excessive. All smiles and I nailed every question and they told me that I had great answers.

Sue P.

Hello,

Just wanted to let you know the good news. I interviewed Thursday morning and received an offer of acceptance less than 24 hours later. The coaching really helped out. Thank you.

The questions were pretty straight forward, no curve balls. The only question I was asked that I hadn't prepared for was, "What is one bad thing about being a PA.” Most of the questions were in reference to my application. Thanks again.

Mr. Rodican,

I just want to reach out to you and send my appreciation for your book "How to Ace the Physician Assistant School Interview". I was recommended to buy your book by a current first-year PA student, and though I bought it just 2 weeks before my interview I am so glad I did! I already felt prepared prior to reading your book, however reading the sample questions and best/worst answers completely changed the way I thought about my responses. I was able to organize my thoughts more clearly and formed by responses based on what I (now) know the admissions committee wanted to hear. I can't thank you enough for your hard work and dedication. Not only have I been pursuing my dream to become a PA for several years but my ultimate goal was to attend Stony Brook University. I interviewed with the program 4 days ago and received an offer today!

I am so excited to begin my journey as a PA and am thankful for PA's like you that take the time to help us pre-PA's.

Sincerely,

Danielle C.
