Children are precious in the sight of God. Our children are the future of the Lord's church. Today's world is brimming with Satan's pull. Potter Children's Home is encouraging you to be part of a day set aside to pray for children. Sunday, October 29th, congregations of the Lord's church are planning this day as a time devoted to prayer and giving for children.

Please make plans to be part of this day! We hope to have congregations of the Lord's church from coast to coast praying for the children of the world.

As my daughter squeezed my hand she was also grinding my ring into the neighboring finger. She was getting stitches taken out but I think I was in more pain. How could a 110 lb girl have that strong of a grip? Whine though I might, I was still willing to let her inflict the pain if it would ease hers. Often, we wonder how God can let us go through pain if He is supposed to be all loving. "How could He let this happen?" rolls off our lips. Yet, through our own personal pain we loose sight of the fact that God is with us feeling as much or pain as we are.

Ironically, pain entered the world because when God said, (Genesis 1:26). "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness." He also gave the "created image" a choice to follow their Creator. God wanted a creation that would love Him because they chose to, not because they had too. As a result of that choice, sin entered the world and pain, tears, disaster and death, have been a part of it every since.

At the point when God could have turned His back (Phil 2:5-8) "...Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death even death on a cross!

Instead of turning His back, God gave us an escape of sin, death, and pain and gave us Himself.
(Romans 5:6) "You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly.
So, where is God when we are hurting? He is right there beside us, allowing us to hold onto Him--hurting with us, but also providing an avenue of escape.

(Col 1:19-20)

For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

TAHLIA WILLIS

Tahlia Willis is ten years old and attends 5th grade at G.J. Mann in Niagara Falls. Her favorite things to do in her spare time are coloring, singing and dancing. Her favorite foods are macaroni and cheese (yum) and broccoli. She doesn’t have a pet at the moment, but likes geckos.

Tahlia says the best thing about being a part of the church at LaSalle, is seeing all her friends and she has lots of them! Her favorite bible stories are found in the Old Testament – Noah’s Ark and the story of David.

Tahlia is thankful for her mom and being able to learn new things about the Bible.

Please check the
