

Kelly Maclaskey
1954-

Mr. Maclaskey began his oil career in 1970 when he began working for his father, Bill Maclaskey. In 1977, Maclaskey Vacuum Tank Truck Service was formed and one year later, the operation was moved to El Dorado. The business was incorporated in 1987, and the name changed to Kelly Maclaskey Oil Field Services, Inc. In 1992, the company expanded into the Permian Basin in New Mexico, and in 2007, to the Fort Worth Basin in Texas. Mr. Maclaskey is able to serve the Mid-Continent area with a large fleet of trucks.
