Earth's Most Sacred Spot

Some time ago I bought a fine little devotional book on the death of Christ. One of the chapters was on "Earth's Most Sacred Spot." The author was referring to Golgotha, "the place which is called Calvary." Because our Savior suffered and died there, the author considered it the most sacred of all places. But I want to assure you that earth's most sacred spot is not some hill on the other side of the world. The most sacred place on this earth is right here at His table, when we commune with Jesus and with one another in breaking bread and drinking the cup of the Lord. —David Pharr

"The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?"

Thanksgiving 2023 Basket Donations

Forms are available in the back if you wish to have a basket donated to someone.

There are signup sheets on the back bulletin board to sign up to bring in items to put in the baskets.

Baskets will be delivered Sunday November 19th after morning services.

No-perishable items may be brought to the building at any time.

Perishable items should be brought to the building on Sunday November 19th.

All donation requests should be brought in by Sunday November 12th so we can have a good idea of how many baskets we will need this year.

Bruce Brink and Stephanie Vinton will be united in marriage on November 4th. In honor of their marriage, and to share our love and best wishes, we have a card for everyone to sign and will also be collecting toward a gift card to give them. See Audrey to sign the card and contribute toward the gift card.
