“Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly.”

Matthew 1:18-24

St. Joseph is rightly revered for his contribution to our eternal salvation. He must have been devastated by the news that Mary, his betrothed wife, was pregnant, but not with his child. He knew Mary would not only be shamed, but in a small village like Nazareth, everyone would have known that Joseph was not the father and she was at risk of being stoned to death. Joseph trusted God and believed his assurance, through an angel, that Mary had not been unfaithful. He took her into his home and was a loving and caring husband of Mary and father to Jesus. Like Joseph, we face difficult situations and challenges in life that hurt us physically, emotionally and spiritually. How we deal with them depends largely on how well we know Jesus by constant reading and reflection of the truth revealed to us by God in Scripture. Have you prepared your gift for Jesus to celebrate his birthday? If not, give Him the gift of reading one of the four Gospels, such as Matthew or Luke. And remember, Jesus is the Reason for the Season.

Women's Retreat: "Called by Name"
March 10th-12th

“Called by Name: Jesus and the Unnamed Women of the Gospels” is the theme of a spring women's retreat the weekend of March 10–12 at Mount Saint Joseph Conference and Retreat Center. Some women needed physical healing. Others needed spiritual healing and forgiveness. Still others wanted to give instead of receive, offering resources of money, support, encouragement and understanding to Jesus and his male companions. The gospels indicate that many women were part of Jesus' life and the gospels written afterwards; however, most of them remained unnamed. During this weekend, retreatants will be invited to walk along the dusty roads of Gospel lands and the concrete sidewalks of today, reflecting on the power and mystery of being named. They will be invited to listen for the voice of God calling their own name in love.

The retreat leader is Ursuline Sister Cheryl Clemons, who serves as Vice President for Academic Affairs/Academic Dean for Brescia University, Owensboro. The Center is located in Maple Mount (12 miles west of Owensboro on Hwy. 56). The $180 fee includes meals and accommodations. Commuters can attend for $130. Take 10 percent off the cost if paid in full by Feb. 10, 2017. To register, contact Kathy McCarty, 270-229-0206 or e-mail kathy.mccarty@maplemount.org. Visit www.ursulinesmsj.org for more information.
