BioWorld Today* Publishes Story on JDP Therapeutics

LANSDALE, PENNSYLVANIA, January 21, 2010 - JDP Therapeutics, Inc., a specialty pharmaceutical company, announced today that BioWorld Today published a story on JDP in the January 20, 2010 issue, under the “New Co. News” section. This story describes JDP’s starting history, research program, therapeutics area, its future clinical plan, and the potential benefits of JDP’s new products over the current therapy of allergic reactions.

“It’s an honor for JDP to be included in this elite magazine. We are pleased that our entrepreneurship, research efforts and innovations are being recognized,” commented Jie Du, Ph.D., President and Founder of JDP Therapeutics.

JDP Therapeutics Inc., founded in 2008, is a specialty pharmaceutical company focused on developing small molecule therapeutics to treat life threatening diseases with significant unmet medical needs, primarily for acute care use in the hospital setting.
