

From the Principal's Desk

Dear Friends of Sts. Peter and Paul:

Ash Wednesday will be on Wednesday, February 14, 2018. It marks the beginning of Lent. Lent is a time for introspection. One must come to know oneself before one can really hope to understand others. St. Augustine wrote: "Lord, May I know myself, may I know Thee." As we live this Lenten season, let us contemplate the Cross with the eyes of the Spirit. Let us reflect and discover the meaning of the Cross in the life of Christ and the meaning of the Cross in our lives. Let us look into areas of self-denial which perhaps many of us have never recognized as fields of fruitful penance.

May these 40 days of Lent lead us to the joy of Easter Sunday!

In faith, hope and love,

Carlota E. Morales, Ed.D.
