Strong Fundraising Advantage for Wanggaard Heading Into August 12th Primary

Conservative Grassroots Back Wanggaard

Sturtevant - The Wanggaard Campaign demonstrated a show of strong grassroots support with the release of their finance report on Monday. Wanggaard heads into the August 12th primary with four times the cash advantage as his opponent, who loaned his campaign $8,300. The $47,000 raised this past reporting period brings the total raised for Wanggaard to over $124,000.

Wanggaard's report shows strong support from individual donors, with 86% of individuals contributions being $100 or less.

"I am humbled by the outpouring of support my campaign has received from so many residents of Racine and Kenosha County," said Van Wanggaard. "The number of individuals who have financially supported my campaign is a strong indicator that the local grassroots believes in my record as a proven, trusted conservative leader who stood with Governor Walker to pass bold reforms. Their support shows that they believe I'm the person best-qualified to represent their voices in Madison."

Van Wanggaard is running to retake the 21st State Senate district after he was recalled for standing with Governor Walker during the Act 10 battle. He now faces an August 12th primary election. He has been endorsed by Congressman Paul Ryan, Speaker Robin Vos, Representative Samantha Kerkman, Racine Tea Party PAC, and over 70 state and local leaders. A full list of endorsements can be found at www.voteforvan.com. The 21st State Senate district covers parts of Racine and Kenosha County.
