

Join Us at the Sasquanaug Annual Meeting for Update on Local Findings from Battlefields of the Pequot War Project November 4 @ 4:00, The Southport School

The annual Sasquanaug meeting is open to the public and will feature a landowner update on the Battlefields of the Pequot War project to uncover artifacts from the 1637 Battle of Pequot Swamp. David Naumec, Senior Researcher, will share news about the summer's local archaeological findings, notably at Southport Park, a Sasquanaug holding. David is a military historian and archaeologist who specializes in Connecticut and early American history; he has been studying the Pequot War for the past 10 years.

Sasquanaug encourages the community to attend to hear not only about this project, but also about Sasquanaug Association's efforts this past year and goals for the year ahead. You'll have a chance to meet the board members and learn more about how you can get involved. Light refreshments will be served.
