

Barbara Annette Roberts
Cooper

Annette Cooper, 63, was born on Nov. 9, 1939 and lived most of her life in Oil City. She was known as a very devoted mother, grandmother and aunt. Her family was her greatest joy, always in her heart and on her mind.

She was a much loved person and was known to many as "momma" or "Granny Grunts." Her extended family and friends were dear to her.

Due to a lengthy illness, Annette passed away Sunday, January 19, at her residence in Oil City and was reunited with her adored son, David, and her treasured grandson, Seth.

She was also preceded in death by her sister, Dorothy Shelton; three brothers, Charles Carl and Wayne Roberts, and parents, C.P. and Nora Roberts.

She is survived by her husband, Harris Cooper; her son,
