There are vacancies on two volunteer committees: the Neebing Economic Development Advisory Committee (“NEDAC”) and the (newly minted) Waste Management Committee (“WMC”).

The mandate for NEDAC is summarized as (for more detail, refer to By-law 2016-022, as amended):

- liaise with potential developers to provide information and encouragement;
- look for and identify opportunities for development;
- assist the Corporation with legwork and development work associated with these opportunities;
- assist the Corporation with research associated with development possibilities;
- make recommendations to the Corporation for marketing and developing the community; and
- liaise with, provide information to, and support local business endeavours.

NEDAC presently meets at 5:00 p.m., on the second Monday of each month, at the municipal office. NEDAC has a dedicated administrative staff member: our Economic Development Officer Intern, Courtney Lanthier.

The mandate for the WMC is summarized as (for more detail, refer to By-law 2016-022, as amended):

- To make recommendations to Council with respect to public education relating to waste management;
- To make recommendations to Council with respect to rules associated with the use of the Corporation’s landfill sites and associated facilities;
- To advise Council with respect to best waste management practices, including diversion of waste from landfill, landfill management, alternative facilities or processes to landfilling waste, etc.;
- To advise Council with respect to changes being brought forward by other orders of government which impact waste management;
- To provide input to Neebing’s Asset Management Committee relating to the assets associated with Neebing’s landfill sites, as requested from time to time; and
- To advise Council with respect to long term waste management needs and options.

Regular dates/times for meetings of the WMC have not as yet been established. The by-law requires a minimum of 6 meetings annually.

General information about participating on volunteer committees is set out in the By-law, which includes a Volunteer Code of Conduct. Volunteers are paid an honorarium of $25 for each regular meeting of the Committee which they attend.

As at the time this article was prepared, there were 3 available seats on the NEDAC and 4 available seats on the WMC. To apply, please communicate your interest to the municipal office. You can telephone (474-5331), email (neebing@neebing.org), write to us (4766 Highway 61, Neebing, Ontario, P7L 0B5) or drop by during office hours (9 to 5, Monday through Friday).

The deadline to apply is Tuesday, January 15th at noon. If we receive more applications than there are available seats on these committees, Council will review the applications and make appointments at the January 16th Council meeting.
