Payment is due at the time of your ultrasound. Your insurance company will not pay for this elective ultrasound.

I understand that Baby Views is an elective service which is not approved by the FDA as a medical ultrasound. This means that a radiologist does not “read” the exam and my physician does not receive a report. Baby Views is in no way responsible for determining or reporting any abnormalities or complications occurring during this pregnancy, and does not offer any medical opinions regarding your pregnancy. I wish to obtain this elective ultrasound and assume any risks to me or my baby in doing so.

I authorize Baby Views to use any images or video in current or future advertising.
