

JULY 20 & 21, 2024
16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

By: The Word Among Us

His heart was moved. (Mark 6: 34)

Anyone who is a parent or caretaker of young children can relate to the dilemma Jesus' apostles faced in today's Gospel. They had just returned from their first attempts at preaching the good news and healing the sick (Mark 6: 30). It must have been so exciting seeing God work so powerfully through them. But missionary work is demanding, so they were probably bone-tired as well. They have must appreciated Jesus' suggestion: "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while" (6: 31).

But their plans were disrupted when a huge crowd showed up. They must have felt the way exhausted parents can feel when everyone in the house has come down with the flu: stretched beyond their limits and more than a little dispirited. Some of them might have even wished that the people would go home—and take their diseases, their demons, and their troubles with them. But not Jesus. In contrast to his apostles, he put aside his hopes for some R&R and devoted his whole day to teaching them "many things" (Mark 6: 34). He saw a need and he met it—immediately and unquestioningly.

What a marvel Jesus is! We all get tired at times, and some of us are always tired. But the God of Israel "never slumbers nor sleeps" (Psalm 121: 4). Jesus never gets worn out. He never complains, and he never feel sorry for himself. Just as he did throughout his life, and especially on the cross, he continues to give without counting the cost.

Hold this image of Jesus close to your heart as you celebrate Mass today. Believe that, in the midst of all the other prayers arising to him right now, he still sees you and hears you. He is never too tired for you; he always has time for you. So quiet your racing heart and let him minister to you. Bring him your needs, and wait patiently to hear what he has to say to you.

"Jesus, I am amazed at your tireless, endless love for me!"
