

JUNE 2019 SKYWARD USER CONFERENCE

Session 6 How to Achieve Accurate Attendance
Reporting Corresponding to the State

ADM IS FUNDING FOR THE 9 20 DAY REPORTING PERIODS –ADM SUM 20 IS THE SCHEDULED 20 DAYS WITH THE CORRECT NUMBER OF MINUTES FOR THE STUDENTS DAY – A STUDENT RECEIVES 1 ADM FOR A COMPLETE SCHEDULE AND PRESENT FOR ALL CLASSES.

ADA IS DAYS/PERIODS PRESENT IN THE 20 DAY PERIOD

MINUTES = FUNDING

Everyone has their preferred method for troubleshooting and I am not saying mine is the best or only way, this is the process I use. [Joan's disclaimer]

I search the high school by grade level because of the variety of scheduling options. I know the 9th and 10th grades should have a full schedule.

ADM TROUBLESHOOTING

Even though the ADM report looks great in Skyward it may not be the same story in EIS.

The Student Standard ADM Search is a wonderful tool to see the EIS status

I look at the ADM SUM for fractions – if the student has a complete schedule I expect to see a ADM of 1, a schedule day of the schools minutes ex:390, Days Present should be 20 unless they have missed days or enrolled during the 20 days. [expect for MM 9 and it can be less]
I use the greater than 20 to look for students with over 1 ADM. This usually means a drop record has not loaded in EIS, or a high school student is taking DE classes.

Another way to check the ADM for students is to run the EIS Directors Membership Attendance report in EIS for the upcoming report period. I also run Skywards MM report prior to the close of a reporting period and for the upcoming MM range.

- Why worry about a student's schedule in EIS if they are over in ADM?
- Assessment pulls from EIS and a student can be in 2 different sections for the same EOC course. This creates errors in the Visibility tool, the student is in the course twice.
 - I was told that having many students with a ADM of over 20 could have an impact at the year end and how the funding handles this.

Here is an example of a student whose Skyward ADM in the Directors Monthly Membership Attendance Report for the 5th reporting period is correct with a normal scheduled day and the correct amount of minutes

EIS Student Standard ADM Search for Under 20 ADM Sum is used to located the students without a complete schedule – this is where BEP funding is lost if the student does not have a full schedule day and all minutes are loaded in EIS. Again, Skywards ADM report can look correct but EIS can have a issue and not show a full ADM.

To effectively troubleshoot a school/student ADM there are several areas that impact the ADM

- The schools Bell Schedule
- The schools calendar – is there more than one and tied to certain grade levels
- The Calendar days could have a day coded incorrectly
- The schedule changes were not done in the proper order --- a schedule change needs the class dropped first and then the new class added
- The dates of the schedule change are not the same
- The date the schedule was added verses the students enrollment day – I see gaps here quite often, a student enrolls on a Friday but the schedule is not added until the following Monday or Tuesday. This leaves a day or 2 of ADM 0
- Is Class meeting time override used?
- Is the Service District and Service School completed on the Section TN button? This can keep the class from pulling in the extract
- If a course has not pulled in the extract and is not loaded in EIS, it will impact the ADM standard day minute count

Inside Skyward Troubleshooting ADM issues

When viewing a students schedule turn on the Option to view Dropped Classes to see the history Skyward pulls the students schedule from the Transaction Records – this is where adjustments can be made to a students schedule for the date a class was dropped or added

STUDENT ATTENDANCE AUDIT REPORT

I love this report. It can be run at entity level, for a single student, for a single grade level or the complete school. You choose the date range to run the report for and this allows you to narrow the search down. When running for a grade level you can also add a range in the student key

The screenshot shows a web-based form titled "Student Attendance Audit Report". The form is divided into several sections: "Template Settings", "Report Ranges", "Student Selection", and "Report Options". In the "Template Settings" section, the "Template Description" is set to "Entity Level", and there are checkboxes for "Share with other users in entity 005" and "Print Greenbar". The "Report Ranges" section includes fields for "School Year" (2018), "Entity" (005), and "Attendance Dates" (08/02/2017 to 08/18/2017). There are also checkboxes for "Include All Schools" and "Include All Calendars". The "Student Selection" section has radio buttons for "Ranges" (selected) and "Individual", and fields for "Student Key" (a) and "Grade/Grad Yr" (10, 2021). The "Report Options" section has a checkbox for "Print Course Detail". On the right side of the form, there are buttons for "Save", "Save and Print", and "Back".

Here are some different examples of errors the Student Attendance Audit Report found. This report lets me see the how's and whys of Skyward system data handling. It takes the majority of the guess work out.

When this report shows a full schedule day with the correct minutes and the ADM report is correct, but EIS is showing a partial ADM Sum , I then go to the EIS
