Article IV section I of your membership contract states:

The Club requires thirty day's prior notice to resign a membership. The resigning member must complete and sign a Membership Termination Form. The member must also surrender all membership cards and locker keys, and must pay any outstanding balance. The voluntary resignation is not effective until the expiration of the thirty days notice period and The Club receives the signed and completed Membership Termination Form, all membership cards, locker keys and required payments. After the effective date of voluntary resignation, the member is not subject to any further dues.
