TRUSTING IN GOD

We have been following the news out of the Ukraine where the former president, Viktor Yanukovich, was forced out of office. Immediately after that the authorities opened up his presidential palace, a multi million dollar mansion with an underground tunnel and lavish facilities the poor could only dream of and picture existing in heaven. Yanukovich stole and amassed wealth to the detriment of his people. This is a common story around the world. While this is extreme, it is a symptom of our collective sickness: the desire to secure our future wellbeing. From a religious perspective, it is simply the direct effect of lack of trust in our loving God. If I trust that God will take care of me now, tomorrow and for all eternity, then I won't be cheating and stealing, nor will I be robbing Peter to pay Paul by putting material, emotional, social, and financial security before the only one that indeed matters in my life: God! But no, we worry and fret as though our lives and future depend on us! May the Lord free us from unnecessary worries and anxieties and help us to trust Him more and more each day. Amen.

TOP 5 MYTHS ABOUT VOLUNTEERING IN CHURCH

We continue to address the 5 top myths people give for their lack of participation in their church community activities.

MYTH #3: "I DON'T HAVE TIME."

Saying we don't have time to do something simply means that it's not important to us. And there are lots of people who make time to teach youth faith-formation classes every Tuesday from September through May or even June. Even if there aren't enough hours in the day, there is time to help out at Mass on Sundays as a minister. You're already there for Mass and some of the groups don't even meet in a whole year. There's time to be one of the first familiar faces new parishioners look out for at Mass. St. Bart's is your faith community; make it important to you. Become a minister and give back.

IN APPRECIATION

Indeed I was very happy and impressed with the success of the Youth Week that concluded last Sunday. Each time I attended an event, I counted over 17 Youth members present; and at the Panel Discussion, Adoration & Ministration, and Dinner, I counted between 70-80 parishioners in attendance.

When I mentioned that the Adoration was my favorite event, someone rightly said that comparing any of the activities would be like comparing apple to oranges; that each was beautiful and unique in its own way. I agree. I gained something and I'm sure the Youth and parishioners who attended came out with blessings and hopefully some life lessons.

I don't want to start thanking any individuals because Fr. Daniel and Ellen Chimenti will do so, but let me take this time to once again thank both of them first of all and then EVERYONE who helped them to make it so successful. I thank the Youth members and pray that they continue to grow in number, grace and wisdom. We are proud of each of you.

SWEEPSTAKES

Please lend your help to make this event a successful one. I learned that the profit we'll make is dependent on the number of people we are able to get through the doors. Support the event by bringing as many family members and friends as you can. It is a major fundraiser for the year. Thanks for helping.

Blessings and Peace upon you. Amen. ~ Father Raphael Ezeh, MSP

LENT IS UPON US

Lent Begins
Ash Wednesday

Metanoia is a Greek word for Lent, which connotes a change of mind and heart, altering one's mind-set toward whole new ways of thinking and acting. Lent is a period where we take a long look at where we are and try to see where we ought to be. It involves testing our values and discerning how they stack up against the values that our Lord Jesus offers His followers. Subsequently, Lent is a time when we acknowledge our guilt for the sins that led to Christ's passion and death.

ASH WEDNESDAY

This Wednesday, March 5th, is Ash Wednesday and marks the beginning of Lent. As the beginning of Lent, Ash Wednesday calls us to the conversion journey that marks the season. The readings assigned to Ash Wednesday highlight this call to conversion.

The first reading from the prophet Joel is a clarion call to return to the Lord "with fasting, and weeping and mourning." On Ash Wednesday the Church invites us to receive ashes on our foreheads as a sign that during the season of Lent we will make sincere efforts to cleanse our lives of sin, and discipline ourselves through almsgiving, prayer and fasting.

SYMBOLISM OF ASHES

As with all material things which are used as religious symbols, the symbolism of ashes is complex and difficult to understand. In themselves, ashes have little meaning, but they have their own biblical and historical context in the liturgical practices of today. Ashes are an ancient symbol of repentance (sackcloth and ashes). Consequently, when received in the light of God's revealing word, ashes can become a biblical symbol for us, and our desire to turn back to God. When we receive ashes on our foreheads, we remember who we are. We remember that we are creatures of the earth ("Remember that you are dust"). We remember that we are mortal beings ("and to dust you will return"). The reception of the ashes on our foreheads reminds us of the fact that we are God's chosen children on a journey of conversion, hence "Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel." The ashes remind us that we are members of the body of Christ, and the blotch on our foreheads will proclaim that identity to others, too.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES

Ashes will be distributed at each Mass on Ash Wednesday, March 5th; Mass times are 7 a.m., 9 a.m., 12 Noon and 7:30 p.m. There will also be a short service with the distribution of ashes at 4 p.m. that day. With the exception of those who are ill, ashes will only be distributed at these Masses and Service.
