

Red Cross - Canada is Eager to Continue Close Working Relationship with the Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver

03 October 2018 – Ms. Kimberley Nemrava (right), Vice President for British Columbia and the Yukon of the Canadian Red Cross, calls on Consul General Maria Andrelita S. Austria (2L) to convey her gratitude for the close relationship they enjoyed with the Consulate in the past and the hope that it would continue to benefit from the Consulate's support in the coming years. Both sides discussed potential programs for collaboration that included first aid and disaster preparedness training and volunteer recruitment drive, among others. Joining the meeting is Consul Arlene T. Magno.
