A Mother’s Day

Mothers of faith instill faith in their children and are praised by God for their godly service (2 Timothy 1:5). As we honor our mothers today, please notice some of the things with which a mother’s day ought to be filled.

A mother’s day is:

A day of joy. The day of giving birth to new life is a great day of joy and gladness (John 16:21). Yet, even while motherhood brings joy it is also attended with sorrow. Mary, the mother of Jesus, had great sorrow as she witnessed her son Jesus being horribly mis-treated (Luke 2:34-35).

A day of love. Godly mothers seek the welfare of her children before herself. She “watches over the ways of her household” with love (Proverbs 31:27). Blessed is the family whose mother wraps her children in the security of warm affection and constant care (Titus 2:4).

A day of instruction. Mothers are daily teachers of the next generation. Her words, values and character are instilled in the hearts and lives of her children. Mothers, be careful to teach your children “with wisdom” and the “law of kindness” (Proverbs 31:26).

A day of devotion. Hannah devoted herself to giving her son Samuel to the Lord (1 Samuel 1:11, 22, 27-28). Your children will not be Christians by accident. Mothers, you have a tremendous part in the faith of your children. If you are not devoted to God it is unlikely your children will be. Set them a godly example every day. They will “rise up and call (you) blessed” (Proverbs 31:28).

Adam names his wife Eve, because she would become the mother of all the living.

Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the Lord your God is giving you.

Listen, my son, to your father's instruction and do not forsake your mother's teaching.

Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.
